

2. The Parliament of the Dominion may amend the said British North America Act when it may see fit to do so, but it is not empowered to pass any Amendment affecting the rights guaranteed in said Act to minorities.

3. The proposed law for the alteration of the said Act must be passed by an absolute majority of each House of Parliament.

All of which we humbly pray Your Majesty to take into your favourable and gracious consideration.

Mr. Shaw—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, one full day a week for the whole session should be set aside for private members, on which day notices of motion shall have precedence over other business.

Mr. Irvine—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, a revision of the rules is desirable, and that for this purpose a special committee should be appointed to consider and report upon such revision at this session.

Mr. Shaw—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, the Senate as at present appointed and constituted is not of the greatest advantage to Canada.

Mr. Kennedy (West Edmonton)—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, the Mountain Freight Scale should be abolished in so far as it is reflected in Standard Mileage Rates, Class Rates and Commodity Rates.

Mr. Coote—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, the Estimates should be referred to select committees before being submitted to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Good—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, the Select Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce should be instructed, in accordance with that Committee's recommendation at the 1923 session of Parliament, to continue during the present session of the House, the investigation into the basis, function and control of financial credit to commerce and industry, with a view to advising this House as to the desirability of some constructive and fundamental changes in the present financial system.

Mr. Coote—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, the Select Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce should be instructed to enquire into the matter of a central or reserve bank for Canada.

Mr. Campbell—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, legislation should be enacted which will make difficult, and if possible prevent, the practice of issuing what is known as "watered stock."

Mr. Woodsworth—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, it is not in the interests of the country at large that the privilege of issuing currency and of controlling financial credit should be granted to private corporations.

Mr. Irvine—On Monday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, no Act of War against a foreign state shall be committed directly or indirectly without the consent of Parliament; no international treaty whatever shall be ratified until it has been submitted to and approved by Parliament; no diplomatic arrangement or verbal or written understanding with a
