

CHAP.	PAGE
13. Preparations to leave the island. Another naval review, and various other incidents; with some account of the island, its naval force, and number of inhabitants . . .	472
14. The arrival of the ship at the Island of Huahelme; with an account of an expedition into the island, and several other incidents which happened while she lay there . . .	477
15. Arrival at Ulileta, with an account of the reception we met with there, and the several incidents which happened during our stay. A report of two ships being at Huahelme. Preparations to leave the island, and the regret the inhabitants showed on the occasion. The character of Oedidee, with some general observations on the island . . .	481

BOOK III.

FROM ULILETA TO NEW ZEALAND.

1. Passage from Ulileta to the Friendly Isles; with a description of several islands that were discovered, and the incidents which happened in that track . . .	486
2. Reception at Anamook; a robbery and its consequences, with a variety of other incidents. Departure from the island. A sailing canoe described. Some observations on the navigation of these islanders. A description of the island, and of those in the neighbourhood, with some account of the inhabitants, and nautical remarks . . .	490
3. The passage from the Friendly Isles to the New Hebrides; with an account of the discovery of Turtle Island, and a variety of incidents which happened, both before and after the ship arrived in Port Sandwich in the Island of Mallicollo. A description of the Port; the adjacent country; its inhabitants, and many other particulars . . .	495
4. An account of the discovery of several islands, an interview and skirmish with the inhabitants upon one of them. The arrival of the ship at Tanna, and the reception we met with there . . .	501
5. An intercourse established with the natives; some account of the island, and a variety of incidents that happened during our stay at it . . .	507
6. Departure from Tanna: with some account of its inhabitants, their manners and arts . . .	516
7. The survey of the islands continued, and a more particular description of them . . .	519
8. An account of the discovery of New Caledonia, and the incidents that happened while the ship lay in Balade . . .	526
9. A description of the country and its inhabitants; their manners, customs, and arts . . .	531

CHAP.	PAGE
10. Proceedings on the coast of New Caledonia, with geographical and nautical observations . . .	535
11. Sequel of the passage from New Caledonia to New Zealand, with an account of the discovery of Norfolk Island; and the incidents that happened while the ship lay in Queen Charlotte's Sound . . .	542

BOOK IV.

FROM LEAVING NEW ZEALAND TO OUR RETURN TO ENGLAND.

1. The run from New Zealand to Terra del Fuego, with the range from Cape Descada to Christmas Sound, and description of that part of the coast . . .	548
2. Transactions in Christmas Sound, with an account of the country and its inhabitants . . .	553
3. Range from Christmas Sound, round Cape Horn, through Strait Le Maire, and round Staten Land; with an account of the discovery of a harbour in that island, and a description of the coasts . . .	557
4. Observations, geographical and nautical; with an account of the islands near Staten Land, and the animals found in them . . .	561
5. Proceedings after leaving Staten Land; with an account of the discovery of the Isle of Georgia, and a description of it . . .	565
6. Proceedings after leaving the Isle of Georgia, and an account of the discovery of Sandwich Land; with some reasons for there being land about the South Pole . . .	570
7. Heads of what has been done in the voyage; with some conjectures concerning the formation of ice-islands; and an account of our proceedings till our arrival at the Cape of Good Hope . . .	576
8. Captain Furneaux's narrative of his proceedings in the Adventure, from the time he was separated from the Resolution, to his arrival in England; including Lieutenant Burney's report concerning the boat's crew who were murdered by the inhabitants of Queen Charlotte's Sound . . .	581
9. Transactions at the Cape of Good Hope: with an account of some discoveries made by the French; and the arrival of the ship at St. Helena . . .	586
10. Passage from St. Helena to the Western Islands, with a description of the islands of Ascension and Fernando Noronha . . .	589
11. Arrival of the ship at the island of Fayal. A description of the place, and the return of the Resolution to England . . .	593

TRAINING

CHAP.

1. Va be de th
th lu be mo
va
Da

2. Pass cep
Ro
vat
So obs
Lay
Cor

3. Depa
nea Pre wen
Pos
the Jun jour vati from curr

4. The t
Two and Land
Occu

5. Depar along exter
a per from
Mr. A produ
Land

6. Passag Land
there