

GENERAL SERVANTS' REGULATIONS.

No Servant will absent himself or herself from the Club House, except on business, and the Servants are strictly prohibited from receiving visitors, except as herein before provided, or followers.

No Servant will receive, under penalty of dismissal, any present whatever from the members, guests, or tradesmen of the Club.

Servants while on duty will not talk to each other except on matters connected with their business, and no Servant is permitted to address an individual member in the house on matters personal or relative to the concerns of the Club—all communications of the latter kind to be made through the Steward to the House Committee.

If any money or articles supposed to be the property of members shall be found by the Servants in the Club House, they shall be delivered to the Steward.

The Servants' entrance in the rear will be under lock, and the key thereof be in the custody of the Steward, and Servants must not enter or go out of the Club except by Servants' entrance at the rear of the building.

No large boxes or articles of luggage belonging to members will be admitted into the hall.

No application for reinstatement of a Servant, who may have been dismissed on the representation of a member, will be read or taken into consideration unless it comes through and be recommended by the member by whose representation he or she was dismissed.

Servants will be held responsible for breakage and loss of and damage to the property of the Club.
