

I N D E X.

- Wampum, a sort of shells, 179; circulate as money among the Indians, 186; serve to draw up records, 184.
- Warren, monument erected at Boston in memory of the late General, 478.
- Warren, General, author of a manuscript history of the American revolution, 485.
- Warren, account of the port of, 503.
- Washington, General, a distant relation of the late President, 595; one of the most opulent planters, ibid.; account of his rice-swamps, culture of rice, and rice-mill, ib. 596; transmits rice direct to England, 598.
- Waterford, population of the county of, 467.
- Water rattle-snake, account of the, 600.
- Watkinson, district of, 144.
- Watworth, Captain, estate of, 151 to 153.
- Wayne, army of General, 44, 183.
- Whale-fishery, account of the, 488 to 492.
- Wheat, price of, at Robertson's, 6; at Angelico, 34; about old Shelburne, 98; at Tioga, 99; in the district of Newtown, 103; at Painted Post, 107; in Genesee, 121; Watkinson, 145; in the district of Canadagua, 147; near Fortynille Creek, 239; in the district of Kingston, 284; in the county of Maine, 428; near Portsmouth, 469.
- Whisky, distilled from rye, 56; from cyder, ib.; its price at Mac-Alister's, ib.; in the county of Dauphin, ibid.; mixed with water, the common drink in America, 68; distilleries in the district of Newtown, 103; chief object of the trade of the Indians, 162.
- White-horse Inn, account of the, 22.
- Willsbarre, account of, 82; capital of the county of Luzerne, ibid.
- Wilkinson, Jennima, leader of a sect of Quakers, 110; history of Jerusalem, her establishment, between Lake Seneca and Crooked Lake, 111; description of her meeting, 112; her doctrines, 113; her house, ibid.; her hypocrisy, ibid.; her dress, 115; her way of living, ibid.; her policy, 126; her attachment to Squire Parker, ibid.
- Williams, family, in Marlborough, 398.
- Williamsburg, description of, 157.
- Williamson, extensive settlement of Captain, in Genesee, 128; his plan and system, 129, 136; great profits, 131; terms of payment, 133; works at Great Sodus, 137; private character, ibid.
- Wiscasset, the first trading place in the county of Maine, 453; its situation, ibid.; shipping and trade, 454; exports, ibid.
- Women, on the character of French, 98.
- Woodbridge, account of the village of, 547.
- Wood Creek, description of, 352, 353.
- Wood-pigeons, very numerous in the county of Maine, 542.
- Wyalusing, village of, 84.
- Wyalusing Creek, 84.
- Y.
- York, population of the county of, 465.
- York, description of the town of, 268; intended as the centre of the naval force on Lake Ontario, ibid.; an unhealthy place, 278.