

The October Number

Another anniversary this month—John Brown's famous raid on Harper's Ferry. It is of peculiar interest to Canadians because it was in the little Western Ontario town of Chatham in May, 1858, that the plans were laid which came to fruition in Virginia more than a year later. An article treating of this interesting historical adventure will be contributed by Mr. Fred Landon, Librarian of the Public Library of London, Ontario.

Waterton, a beautiful Canadian public park in Southern Alberta, near the international border, will be described by Mr. Aubrey Fullerton.

Nicholas Flood Davin will be the next "Great Canadian Orator" in Mr. Hassard's notable series.

Sir John Willison's special department.

Col. Denison's Recollections.

Mrs. Mackay's novel.

As well several fine essays, short stories and special articles.
