DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS, TO WIT:

District Clerk's Office.

Be it remembered, that on the eleventh day of January, A. D. 1830, in the fiftyfourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Carter and Hondes, of the said district, have deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors in the words following, to wit:

'Sketches, by a Traveller.

"His eye must see, his foot each spot must tread
Where sleeps the dust of earth's recorded dead,
Where rise the monuments of ancient time,
Pillar and pyramid, in age sublime,
The pagan's temple and the Christian's tower,
War's bloodiest plain and wisdom's greenest bower;
All that his wonder waked in school-boy themes,
All that his fancy fired, in youthful dreams."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, 'An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;' and also to an act, entitled 'An act supplementary to an act, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;" and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints.'

JNO. W. DAVIS,

Clerk of the District of Massachusetts.
