rying on the fishery, and such other purposes as shall be necessary for their support.

That all such persons as are desirous of engaging in the above settlement, do transmit by letter, or personally give in their names, signifying in what regiment or company, or on board what ship they last served, and, if they have families, what number of persons belonging to such families they intend to carry with them, distinguishing the age and quality of each person, to any of the following officers, appointed to receive and enter the same in books open for that purpose, viz.

Jos. Pownall, Esq; solicitor and clerk of the reports to the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, at their office at Whitehall.

John Russel, Esq; commissioner of his majesty's navy at Portsmouth.

Philip Vanbrugh, Esq; commissioner of his majesty's navy at Plymouth.

And that proper notice will be given of the said books being closed so soon as the intended number shall be completed, or at latest on the 7th of April.

It is proposed that the transports shall be ready to receive such persons on board on the 10th of April, and be ready to sail on the 20th; and that timely notice will be given of the place or places to which such persons are to repair in order to embark.

That for the benefit of the settlement, the same conditions which are proposed to private soldiers or seamen, shall likewise be granted to carpenters, shipwrights, smiths, masons, joiners, brick-makers, bricklayers, and all other arti-ficers, necessary in building or husbandry, not being private soldiers or seamen.

That the same conditions as are proposed to those who have served in the capacity of ensign, shall extend to all surgeons*, whether they have been in his majesty's service or not, upon their producing proper certificates of their being duly qualified.

By order of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

THOMAS HILL, Secretary.
