

Article 10 amended to read :

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Society, subject to the advice and approval of the General Committee ; notify members of the Committee of the time and place of its meetings, keep memoranda of the business transacted thereat, and of the attendance of members of Committee ; and shall attend to the advertising ordered and required by the Committee. He shall also prepare, and submit, under the instructions of the General Committee, their annual report,

In the event of a member of the Committee being absent from two consecutive Committee meetings, without an excuse in writing, it shall be in the discretion of the Committee to notify such member, and to report to the Society, in order that his office may be vacated, and a successor appointed.

In article 11 read "one week" instead of "two weeks" as the length of notice of appointments.

Article 16 amended to read :

For each ordinary meeting of the Society, either an Essay with discussion thereon by two members, or a debate with at least four speakers,