

have been used so successfully in attracting attention to the superiority of Canadian cheese; and I am desirous of seeing that such be done.

In conclusion let me say that the action of the Government is taken in the interests of the dairy farmers of Canada; but I am at the same time hopeful that the members of the Butter and Cheese Association of the Montreal Board of Trade will reap advantages from it.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. R. ANGERS.

G. A. IRWIN, Esq.,
Secretary Butter and Cheese Assn.
of the Montreal Board of Trade.

The following extracts are from a letter received by the Dairy Commissioner from a firm in Manchester, England, to whom fresh-made Canadian creamery butter was sent for sale:—

"The high colour of Australian is against even the best qualities. The paler the colour, the better the demand on this market."

"We are much pleased with the quality of boxes marked 'Chesterville' and 'Lennoxville, No. 3,' Government Dairy Stations). These will sell in preference to Aus-
