IMPERIAL ASPECT OF BAHAMA FEDERATION

As a Part of Canada Would Further Great Partnership of Sister Nations in Empire.

MONTREAL, April 3.—Speaking before the Canadian Club this afternoon of the Bahamas and their desire to become a Canadian province, T. B. Macaulay, one of the Canadian promoters of the proposed federation, declared that the imperial aspect of the question was the most important of all.

"In making the Bahamas a part of Canada," said Mr. Macaulay, "we would be taking a long step forward in working out the destiny of Canada and the empire. I see a vision of the future in which the British Empire is a great federation of partnership of five great nations, Great Britain, Canada, Australia, South Africa and India, all of them independent in regard to their own affairs and yet all united in bonds of common loyalty and common interests. The union of detached and helpless colonies into the one or the other of these five great parts would be a move towards the consolidation of the empire. Everything that adds to the strength of one part adds to the strength of all the others.

"The acquisition of the Bahamas would help us to think imperially. The need of a substantial fleet to protect the trade routes of the world. The need of a powerful navy to protect the Canadian navy would be a powerful argument in favor of their acquisition."

BUGS TO FIGHT BUGS.

It is quite possible that anyone who happens to be stranded in the canyons of the high Sierras of California, any time between Christmas and Easter, might stumble upon two or three young men whose actions in those almost inaccessible solitudes would look very mysterious. He would see them gather up great mass of dead leaves and rubbish in places where the sun had melted, sift the finer material into burlap sacks, throw the leaves and sticks away, and then hasten on to a new location. If he were curious enough to follow the "mysterious" strangers, he would find that as soon as the bags were filled they were loaded upon the back of a patient mule, taken to the nearest railroad station and shipped to Sacramento.

Inquiry would probably elicit the statement that the young men were from the "Sierra House," but the inference that they were escaped lumberjacks, if natural under the circumstances, would be altogether unwarranted. The "bug-house" is the name commonly applied to the California state insect described as those employed by the field agents of the insectary on expeditions for the collection of flycatcher beetles. These bred in the canyons of the Sierras, where they are collected while dormant in the winter months of millions of them are shipped to Sacramento, where they are kept in cold storage until the melon aphids make its appearance in the Imperial Valley, or until the beetles and apple aphids are reported in the orchards. Then they are shipped to the pestiferous region, in what quantities may be required to meet the emergency; and the doom of the aphid is considered sealed.—Technical World Magazine.

JACK TAIT MAY BE ON WEST END'S LINE UP.

West End "A" and Central clash Tuesday night on Central court in the last of the home-and-home games in the semi-final of the Canadian basketball championship.

JURY GAVE AWARD OF $300

But Judge Morgan Reserved Judgment in Street Railway Suit.

Judgment was reserved by Judge Morgan in the case of Philip Copeland, the little lad who was run over by a street car on Gerrard-street bridge last December, and whose father is suing the street railway for $500 damages for his son's death.

The jury's sealed verdict of last Friday's making was opened in court yesterday, showing an award of $300 to the plaintiff. Judge Morgan sent the jury out to answer two questions: "How fast was the car going?" and "Do you consider the rate of speed excessive in view of all the circumstances?" The answers were that the car was going nine miles per hour, which the jury considered excessive. In sending the jury out with the questions, Judge Morgan declared it was to prevent further trial in case of appeal, but after the jury answered the questions, Judge Morgan reserved judgment further.

DANGERS ON FRONTIERS

Chinese Proclamation Declares Necessity for Great Army.

PEKING, April 3.—An imperial edict issued to-day in the name of the infant emperor assumes for him supreme command of the army and appoints the Prince Regent generalissimo until the emperor attains his majority.

The proclamation is the most important of a series of edicts, by which the throne has gradually raised the military standard, until the emperor, who was once the most despised profession, is now considered of the highest type.

It reviews the long history of the dynasty, and intimates that dangers are lurking about the frontiers. It declares the necessity for a great army, and demands that the families discontinue selfishly seeking their own interests, and unite, as every family will suffer if conquered. It announces a new military programme.

If fulfilled, the proclamation will prove historical.

THE STRANGE AYE-AYE.

A specimen of the aye-aye is among the recent arrivals at the Zoological Gardens. The only member of its genus, the aye-aye is one of the most remarkable most of that group, peculiar to Madagascar. In size it resembles a domestic cat, but it is much smaller, and has the front surfaces enameled. It is an extraordinary-looking beast, with its broad face and large, naked ears. Altogether its body is covered with a woolly undercoat, the outer fur is long and loose. The prevailing color of its hair is blackish brown. Its tail is bushy and of considerable length. Living singly or in pairs, the aye-aye passes the day steered in a nest of its own construction.—Pall Mall Gazette.

"I remember I am in Washington," said Wilton LaHave, "I always even an afternoon at the Capitol. They put on the hat here comedy there ever again. The last time a friend accompanied me to point out the 'celebs.' A newly elected senator was roundly berated by the press and waned his arms in an impassioned appeal to the senate.

"I was in the center with him?" I whispered to my friend.

"Oh, the birthmark," was the answer.

"A what?"

"A birthmark," he repeated my friend. "His mother was seized by a windmill."—Young's Magazine.

Baseball Gossip

Bill Dineen, American League umpire, will coach Cornell's Varsity pitchers. Fred Clarke, Pittsburg manager, holds the oldfield assist record, making four in one game last season.

Ed Collins, St. Louis last season, will be utility outfielder of the Nip team. Cy Young is working like a beaver at Hot Springs. The vet, stung by criticism, is bound to show the fans he is as good as ever.

Alex. New York Yankee, says after he pitches the team into the pennant he'll turn pug, take on a few marks and then cop Johnson. Uh huh! Just like that. Able waxes 200 pounds, with a gee feeling on.

Jack Pfeister, Cub outbump, has been ordered to give up the game. His heart is a broken shuffler, and physicians say he's here.

Ed Collins, Athletic star, balked on leaving Public with a party of 12. The band played the "Wearin' of the Green" when the Red Sox walked onto the Los Angeles diamond, and Duffy Lewis doffed his cap.

Portland (Pacific Coast League) shut out his opponents for 8 consecutive innings last season.

Hull (New York Yankees) and the Athletics of the Phillies and Athletics will meet in a short series this spring. The Phillies lead the league in runs, and the Athletics accepted. Dates will be arranged later.

President Lichtenhelm of Montreal has been making a strenuous effort to secure Pitcher Ralph Works from Detroit, but the club will not sell the player.

Holy developers, has not turned up at Newport News, the Royals' training camp. He is at present working at the Jacksonville race track. Last season Holy behaved in the same way when the Rochester never fall to put the home town team in first place.

Nature's Cure for a Cough

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is the Most Largely Imitated Medicine in the Country.

What to give the children for cough and cold is the problem mothers now have to solve. Most of them finally decide on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and make it a rule to always have some in the house.

In this medicine are linseed, turpentine and other well-known ingredients of unmistakable value in the cure of colds. It is pleasant to take, so much so that children delight to use it.

So generally is this great medicine used that several imitations have been put on the market. All alike in name only. They are not made from the same formula, nor do they bear the name of Dr. Chase.

You know what you can expect from the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, but you cannot put much faith in an imitation which sells on the reputation of the article it imitates.

On every bottle of the genuine will be found the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author. This is for your protection and for the protection of your children. Be sure to get the genuine, even if it costs a few cents more. 25 cents a bottle, family size 60 cents; all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Your Danger From Kidney Troubles

BEGINS WHEN YOUR BACK ACHES.

Backache is the first and the sure sign of kidney disease.

When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Next to the heart, the kidneys are, perhaps the most important organs in the body. It is no wonder then that if the kidneys are affected the whole system must be.

On the first sign of backache Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble, heal the delicate membranes of the kidneys and make their action regular and natural.

Mr. E. J. Saulnier, Lake Annis, N.S., writes: "I take a great deal of pleasure in telling you the benefit I have received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled with my kidneys for several years; my back was weak, I had terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and in a very short time I was right and fit again."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box or 3 for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."
