in the crack in a log, and hit it a mighty blow, and the log will be split or the crack lengthened. But, if you keep striking the wedge, the log will finally fall apart.

It is so with advertising. You have an article for sale. You place an ad, in The

for one time. It may sell the article with one insertion, or it may not; but if you leave that ad, there for some weeks, you will ultimately find a purchaser. That's the way to look at advertising.

It's like an entering wedge. You don't know how far the split will travel at each blow, but you do know that you must have a good, firm wedge. That's the kind of a wedge THE ADVERTISER is. It will bring business to any store if you hit it every week. The larger the ad, the quicker the business.

An American and Two Englishmen Shot Dead

While Watching the Skirmishing at Manila.

Transport With Sick Soldlers Strikes a Typhoon-List of Casualties at Manila Is a Long One.

Manila, Feb.25-10:11 a.m.-The shooting of two Englishmen and Mr. Argentine, manager of the Andrews cotton mill, at Tondo, on Wednesday, is generally regretted, but it is admitted that this was quite unavoidable. Instead of remaining in the stone basement during the excitement caused by the fires in the vicinity, the trio leaned from an upper window. Their white suits attracted the attention of the American soldiers, who, believing them to be natives firing from the windows, shot all three. Mr. Argentine is dead, Mr. C. F. Simpson is fatally wounded, and Mr.

T. Haslem slightly.

By permission of the authorities a party of bluejackets is landed every evening from the British cruiser Narcissus, to act as a special fire brigade for wetting down the consulate and banks, as a precaution against incendiarism. confer regarding commercial interests, officers are afraid to exercise authority over the recalcitrant soldiers. While not been communicated, it is understood, to the American authorities. The British consul was not present at the conference. SICK SOLDIERS SENT HOME. San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 25.-The transport steamer Zelandia has arrived from Manila after a rough trip, during which she encountered a typhoon of 48 hours' duration, which damaged the ship to a considerable extent, injuring several of the men and nearly foundered the vessel. She brings 56 soldiers, who were sent home on sick leave, 53 discharged or under or-

The American over the recalcitrant soldiers. While fighting is in progress both military and police defy their officers and proceed to the front to see what they style "fun." In order to pass the scandal off a wanton night bombardment of the house of a foreign consul (the name is not given) the American authorities promptly paid for the damage, hoping to avoid publicity. The escape of the consul's family was miraculous. The manifesto proceeds in a rabid denunciation of the American soldiers, declaring that their conduct is bringing disgrace on the white race. The tirade continues with the statement: The reports of the hoisting of the American flag by the natives of Negros are polders and 6 prisoners and a guard of 10. itical buncombe.

USING DUMMY GUNS. New York, Feb. 25 .- The Journal's Manila cable says: As a result of the war of incendiarism and assassination inaugurated by the insurgents, Admiral Dewey has made a request to be allowed to shell the coast and drive the ding Guests Finish Him. Southwold, L. I., Feb. 25.-Michael Fisher, a resident of this place, courted and married a New Jersey widow. They got home a few nights ago, and last night entertained their friends. While all hands were enjoying themselves the bride went outside the house to find out the cause of a disturbance. She met Wm. Walton, a hostler, employed in the village, and he insulted Mrs. Fisher attacked Walton, blackening his eyes and scratching his face. He shouted for assistance and the men in the house came out. Walton made for his wagon. He got in, and taking the whip struck Fisher over the face. The crowd pulled Walton out of the wagon, upsetting it, and beat him until he begged for mercy. He was allowed to go after apologizing to the bride. Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.
