Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc. Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous, and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion, or they can eat as they please in reason, and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentations by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antiacid than Bisurated Magnesia, and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach, and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five-grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity nigestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five-grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present, and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble, and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestants.

INSPECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOLS REQUESTED TO SOLVE PROBLEM

Education Committee Sends Out Its S. O. S.

COLLEGIATE CROWDED

Either New Building or Extra District Seems Necessary.

An S. O. S. call to the provincial inspector of high schools was sent out by No. 3 committee of the board of education at a special meeting today. When the collegiate opened Monday orning there were so many new pupils in attendance that it was necessary to form a new class, and the board is now worrying about where this class will be accommodated. Record Attendance. On the opening day of the term the attendance was larger than ever before and taxed the accommodation to the limit, making it necessary to use the old commercial school for general purposes and to turn the former Princes avenue public school into a commercia department. The flood of new pupils since the fair closed and school worl was definitely under way has made the problem acute. May Demand New School. It is a matter of conjecture what will It is a matter of conjecture what will be done when the inspector arrives to consult with the board. It is quite within possibility that the provincial authorities may demand that an additional high school be built. Another possibility is that another high school district may be declared in the vicinity of the new technical school, and pupils in this area obtiged to attend there instead of the main school. In this event arrangements would be made so that it would be possible to obtain a complete matriculation at the technical school.

Heartless Market Clerk Collects His Rents On Bad Day

Fruit and Vegetable Growers Have To Pay Up Today.

Insult was added to injury, thought the occupants of the shed under which vegetable men and fruit growers house their wares this morning, when Market Clerk Charles Maker chose the poorest market day in months to collect the rent for the stalls.

About 10 o'clock the genial Charles hove into view, and, with his pockets bulging with bills, "boned" the vegetable men,

"Have a heart, Charlie. I've only sold $1.50 worth of stuff today," said ne man.
"You're lucky; I haven't sold anything at all," said another.
"Makes no difference," said Mr.
Maker. "Hand over your $25. The city isn't going to keep a roof over your head for nothing."

Draw Attention To Number of Matron There Recently.

With the departure of Miss L. Jacobs from Byron Sanatorium, where she has been matron for ten months, much comment is heard among the patients arising from the fact that within eighteen months there have been no less than five women filling this position. When Miss Jacobs' term is deducted, it means that there were four within eight months, according to the men.

The attachment which the patients feel for both Miss Jacobs and Dr. J. H. Bell, the superintendent, who has resigned, is expressed by one of them in these words: "The boys are having a good deal to say about Miss Jacobs leaving. Every one of them has become much attached to her, as she has taken a personal interest in each patient. As for Dr. Bell, a better or more experienced man would be hard to find, he having over 20 years' practice in fightenced man would be hard to find, he having over 20 years' practice in fighting tuberculosis. I have been in the institution just long enough to know a bit about it, and I think it a shame to lose these people, under whom things have run so smoothly. It's always the way. If people here are content to be rubber stamps for a certain person, all right; if not, they don't stay long."

According to Dr. H. A. Stevenson, there is no difficulty in raising the money to pay war veterans the gratuity of $2,000 requested, and he is strongly in favor of their demands being granted.

His suggestion is that the Government could afford to pay $500 to each man every three months for one year, thus making the payments only a quarter of the total, and he has no doubt that loans could be floated successfully to meet these payments without disturbing the financial markets badly.

He points out that this money all would be circulated in Canada, none leaving the country, and that, this being so, there would be no impoverishment of the Dominion; in fact, Dr. Stevenson says the plan would be of the greatest benefit to the labor classes during a time of financial stress, which, he thinks, is to be expected.

There is a young maple tree situated at Wolfe and Waterloo streets which has excited favorable comment on the part of residents in the vicinity. The leaves of this sapling have taken on their fall coloring, and for several weeks a delightful color scheme has who stood highest at the pass junior matriculation of last July. Each of the scholarships carries with it free lights the eye in the eevning. A hydro lamp on a near-by post shines brightly, and the illumination passing through the tree casts beautiful tints, which may be seen at a distance, with red predominating, like a large ball of fire. This young tree, with its bright foliage, has proved a treat to residents, and the fact that it has donned the autumn camouflage weeks before its neighbors. FURS WHICH ESTABLISH THE MODE

Service Department in Ladies' Outfitting Section

Having discontinued dressmaking and ladies' tailoring, we are aiming to elevate the service in our ladies' readyto-wear section.

With this in view we have reorganized our alteration department and established what might be termed a reconstruction or remodeling department. Miss Rankin, who is a well-known modiste in this city. will supervise this department and endeavor to make it a real service to you. No matter how high-grade the garment may be, any changing or remodeling necessary to conform to the figure of the wearer will be carried out in this new service department. Even going so far if necessary as to rebuilding the model, making moderate charge for any necessary alterations.

These furs have been carefully selected from stocks which emphasize style authenticity. But whether the coat you select be a thirtyinch flare model of Hudson Seal (dued muskrat) or an all-enveloping flare model of other skins wonderfully matched, only carefully selected and expertly matched peltries are used, each exhibiting skillful workmanship. In addition to our extensive stock of coats, fur coatees, scarfs, stoles and muffs are liberally represented.

'All furs are of the usual Smallman'& Ingram standard, purchased when prices were more favorable than at present, and the prediction is that further advances on standard furs will take effect when the real fur season opens. You are therefore well advised to plan your fur purchases early before the fur weather arrives.

Make Selection Now, Pay Later

For the convenience of those who would like to make early choice, you may select your furs now by making a reasonable deposit, paying the balance when you need your furs or in weekly payments if you prefer.
