

CIVIC ACCOUNTS OF 1908
LARGE BILL OF EXPENSE

Cost of 50 Trips Was $5275—
Money Well Spent, Says
Mayor

It cost the taxpayers $5275 last year for outside trips of members of the council and civic officials...

The first trip was on Jan. 22 and the last on Dec. 1. There were 50 trips...

The largest item is $446.40, representing a visit last May by Controller Harris...

Mayor Oliver leads in the number of trips, with eight, for a total of $105...

Ottawa was the most frequent objective point. Altogether there were a dozen trips to the capital...

It cost the city $801 to be represented at the Quebec Convention last July...

Among civic officials who broadened their knowledge by travel were Dr. Sheard, Property Commissioner Harris...

Mayor Oliver considers that this money has been well spent on these trips, and that compared with Montreal, the expenditure has been very light...

Market Deficit $8000.
St. Lawrence market is making a better showing these days, says Property Commissioner Harris...

Bargains in the Store of Comfort, Air and Light

THIS STORE of ours has always been noted as a bright, airy, well-ventilated store. And fresh air does make such a difference! Our new building with its many windows, its great doors, its elevator shafts and stairways added to the air space of our old store permits of a great uninterrupted circulation of fresh, cool air.

Our Basement's ceiling, unlike that of many stores, gives plenty of room for ventilation, that of the new building being exceptionally high. A ventilating shaft equipped with an electric fan and a light well, with large fanlights opening at will, also form features in that most important of all considerations—the air supply.

Shop at Simpson's to-morrow. Just notice this point about air. It will not take one cent from the opportunities of saving which Bargain Day provides to shop in a well ventilated store.
