HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

COUNCILLORS DECIDE TO BUY MOTTE FARM

For Location of County Poor House—Will Stave Off Issue of a Mandamus.

HAMILTON, June 17.—(Special.)—With only one day in which to forestall the threatened mandamus to compel the city to take some action towards establishing a county poor house, the Wentworth County Council yesterday decided on the Motte farm as the site for such an institution. Their choice lay between the Motte farm, the Newell farm, near Dundas, and the Bower farm, near Waterdown. The prices asked were $8000, $14,000 and $18,000 respectively, but the motion to buy the Motte farm was carried by only one vote, and that was the vote of the approval of Dr. Bruce Smith has to be secured before the purchase can be completed, but J. L. Council, collector for the county, will report the action of the council at the goods Hall to-morrow as a reason why the mandamus should not be issued.

To Jail for Safety.
Jack Burke, was again arrested to-night by Detective Sawyer on a charge of vagrancy. As Burke generally makes it exciting for the officers at No. 8 police station, whenever he is run in, by threatening suicide, he was taken direct to the jail.

The trades and labor council tonight passed a resolution endorsing the proposal of the parks board to establish a new park in the east end and to enlarge the present ones.

As the result of one of his hands being caught in a pulley at Patterson Tilley's lumber yard this afternoon, James Binney, 304 North Catharine street, lost four fingers.

Where's John Leader?
Mrs. John Leader of Port Hope is searching for her husband. The information which she has given to the police is that he has not contributed to her support for the last sixteen months. She thinks he must be in or around Hamilton, and intimates that he is posing as a single man.

Altho the Street Railway Company has given up hope of receiving their nine new pay-as-you-enter cars from the Ottawa Car Company before late in the fall, they still intend to install the system as soon as possible.

Considerable discontent exists among the policemen over the smallness of the remuneration they receive while on special duty and the present time threaten to refuse special work unless $3 be made the minimum.

The last chance of the Radial Railway being permitted to connect with the Hamilton, Grimsby and Lake Simcoe road for the purpose of accommodating the fruit growers and preserving manufacturers has been killed as a result of the discovery that the city would not limit the freight traffic to fruit shipments.

Will Be Deported.
John Silver, a Russian Jew, charged in court today with conspiring to support his wife and four young children, admitted leaving them penniless in Philadelphia and coming to Canada with another woman who is holding him in New York with their two-month-old child. Silver and his family will be deported.

A SPLENDID RECORD

Showing Reliable Grand Trunk Service to Montreal.

During every one of the 31 days of May, the two fast express trains of the Grand Trunk, leaving Toronto 9 a.m. and 10:15 p.m., arrived at Montreal on time.

With a splendid roadbed and the only double-track line (which contributes to safety), it is no wonder that this company find it necessary to run in addition to four regular Pullmans, extra cars almost every night. Tourists visiting Toronto should not fail to visit Montreal and Quebec.

Brice Old Boys Will Celebrate Eleventh Annual Outing.

The Brice Old Boys completed arrangements for their eleventh annual outing for their eleventh annual outing to be held on Friday, July 8. The committee reported that two special trains had been secured, one to go to Wharfedale and one to Southampton, and the excursionists will return by any regular trains on the following Monday. An order was given for 1200 souvenir buttons, bearing the crest of the association, with purple ribbon attached, to be distributed free of charge on the train. Several hundred flags will also be provided for the children.

IDENTIFIED 26 BODIES

Four Victims of Montreal Disaster Still Under Debris.

MONTREAL, June 17.—(Special.)—One by one the blackened remains of the victims of the Herold fire are being identified. Two more were recognized to-day, making a total of 24. Two other bodies are still at the morgue, and four more are yet in the ruins.

The city authorities ceased to-night the work of hunting for more victims, and beginning to-morrow The Herald Publishing Co. will make over the task. To-morrow a public funeral will be held by the Typographical Union on behalf of 18 members.

The inquest was continued to-day. M. D. A. Lafortune appeared for the attorney-general and questioned witnesses.

MISSIONARIES NOT TROUBLE MAKERS.

EDINBURGH, June 17.—William J. Bryan addressed the evening session of the World's Missionary Conference. He refuted many of the objections to missions and said that missionaries were much less apt to get nations into trouble than persons who went abroad for the purpose of making money.
