The last investiture held at Buckingham Palace took place in the courtyard, where the public could see the heroes receiving their decorations and cheer them to their heart's content. Their Majesties the King and Queen on this occasion bestowed them of many kindly things which added to the comfort of the men to be decorated as well as of the on-lookers. The wounded soldiers who had gathered round the palace, the King sent for and chairs were brought to provide them with seats. One soldier with his head bandaged was observed to be in the full glare of the sun until the King, noticing it, sent for him to be wheeled to a shady spot. Barriers erected around the memorial were taken down by the Queen's wish during the proceedings, so that the view would not be spoiled for the onlookers.

Colonel King-Smith, who is to succeed Colonel Schaffner as O.C. for Cossack Street, Military Hospital, Halifax, arrived there last week, and is at the Halifax. Colonel Smith has only recently returned from Salonica, and has been at the front for a year.

Col. and Mrs. R. S. Wilson spent the week-end at the Caledon Club, motor-ing there and back.

Lady Drummond, who arrived in Halifax on a transport, spent the day at the Halifax Hotel. During her stay many of the Red Cross workers paid their respects to Lady Drummond and heard a little of the vast work she is in charge of at London, as head of the Canadian Red Cross information bureau. Lady Drummond is only in Canada on a short leave of ten days to see her young grandson, the child of her only son, the late Capt. Guy Drummond.

Mr. Paul Sheard, lieutenant, C.E.F., has returned to town from the Royal Muskoka.

Sir George Gibbons, London, Ont., who has been staying at the Algonquin, left at the end of the week for his home.

The Rev. and Hon. F. R. Hennage, Victoria, B.C., son of Lord Hennage, Grimsby, England, who has been in Ottawa for a fortnight, and was the guest of the bishop of Ottawa, and also spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brown, has returned to Victoria. Mr. Hennage, who is one of the scout masters for the week, is at present in charge of some thirty-five branches of the Boy Scouts, whose masters have gone to the front, and was in the capital in connection with the work.

Mr. Elliott Strathairn has arrived in town from Hamilton and will spend the winter in Toronto.

Mrs. R. V. Rogers, Kingston, is in town to visit her sister, Mrs. George Boomer and Mrs. J. Kelso.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Andrews, Dun-street, who have spent some time at the St. Charles, Atlantic City, have returned home.

The engagement is announced of Mr. G. Drummond Burn, lieutenant, son of Sir George and Lady Burn, Ottawa, to Audrey Katharine Howard, youngest daughter of the late Lieut.-Col. Tidswell, C.F.A., Hamilton, Ontario, and Mrs. Tidswell, 23 Westbourne Gardens, Folkestone.

The engagement is announced, and the wedding will shortly take place, of Mr. Harry G. Milson, lieutenant, C.E.F., second son of Mr. J. Milson, F.R.S.A.S., and Mrs. Milson, Saskatoon, to Kathleen, only daughter of the late Mr. A. M. Spruill, F.E., Hon-oluh, H.I., and Mrs. Spruill, Bexhill-on-Sea, Sussex, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buchanan and Capt. and Mrs. Walter Nicholls have returned from spending the week-end at Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Miss Bergstrom, daughter of the Swedish consul at Montreal, spent

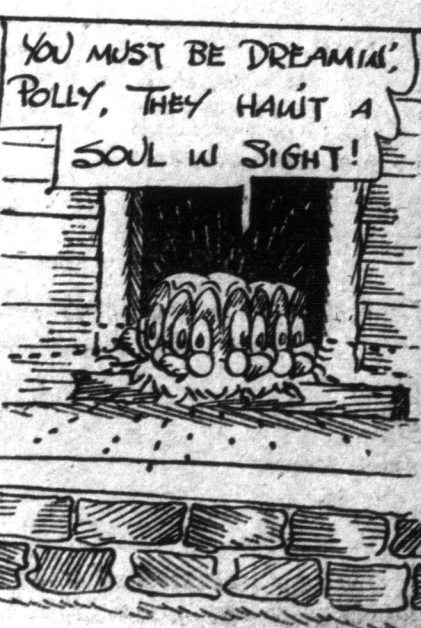

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain multifold coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in; about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it tones and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

"IT'S GRAND," SAYS TORONTO WOMAN

Had Been Going Down Hill Three Years and Fell Off Thirty Pounds.

HER HEALTH RESTORED

Suffered So Didn't Care Whether She Lived or Died—Troubles Ended

"I bought my first bottle of Tan-lac about a month ago and that's when the long lane turned for me," said Mrs. Elizabeth Pirith, a munitions worker for the Russell Motor Company, who resides at 14 Hugo Street, Toronto.

"For a long time," continued Mrs. Pirith, "I have suffered from nervousness, stomach trouble and rheumatism. In fact, ever since I came over from England three years ago my health has been very bad. I had tried so many different kinds of medicines and kept getting worse that I had become almost fatalistic and felt that nothing could help me. During those three years I lost over thirty pounds and was just going down every day. I had been all day for food and what little I forced myself to eat would sour and seemed to do me harm instead of good. For several hours after every meal the gas would distress me so I could hardly do one bit of work. I had sharp pains all through my sides and there seemed to be a constant right in the pit of my stomach. My nerves felt like something awful was going to happen to me. Nights when I came in from work, feeling exhausted and worn-out, and reading sleep so bad, I would just lie awake and roll and toss. For the past two years I have been bothered with rheumatism and had terrible pains all through my joints and body, especially in my knees and arms. My fingers and hands would puff up, my joints would swell and get stiff and the pain at times would almost drive me crazy. I would try anything my friends would suggest, but, nothing helped me, and I had been feeling bad so long and trying to work when I was half dead that I had actually gotten to the point where I didn't care whether I lived or not."

"So many Toronto people had recommended Tan-lac that I thought there must be something to it, so I decided to see if it could help me. As others said it had them. Well, it's the truth. I felt better after my first few doses and I have been gaining in weight, health and strength ever since. When I finished my first bottle I was feeling fine and went right down and bought two more bottles. I have just finished my third bottle now, and I think Tan-lac is simply grand. I have a good appetite, eat anything I want, and am never bothered any more with gas or other signs of indigestion. My nervousness has left me entirely and I sleep sound every night. My rheumatism, so much which kept me from doing my work, has almost entirely gone. I have so much more strength and energy that I can work better than I could in a long time."

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, who resides in the same apartment with Mrs. Pirith, and who witnessed her statement, said: "Yes, since taking Tan-lac she has fallen off until she was hardly more than a shadow of what she used to be. I was un- easy about her, but since taking the Tan-lac she looks worlds better and I can tell from the way she acts she feels like a new person."

Tan-lac is sold in Toronto by Tam-lyn's Drug Stores and by one regular established agency in every town. (Advertisement.)
