

purchase of Bibles and Testaments, by weekly or other payments, the committee divide the city and neighborhood into districts, and appoint one or more collectors to each district; and that these contributions be paid to the Treasurer at the monthly committee meetings.

6th. That the committee make it their business to inquire whether any families or individuals residing within the limits of this Society are in want of Bibles and Testaments, and unable to procure them; in which case it shall be the duty of the committee to supply them therewith at prime cost, or otherwise, according to their circumstances.

7th. That Bible readers be established so soon as the funds of this Association warrant their appointment.

8th. That all cards of subscriptions for Bibles or Testaments be presented by the Collector to the Secretary for signature, before application to a Bible Depository for the Bible or Testament specified, and all such cards to be returned by the Depository when his account is presented for payment at the monthly meeting.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING BIBLE READERS.

1st. That Bible readers are directed to keep exclusively to their own districts.

2nd. The streets in their respective districts to be visited in regular order; the only exceptions to this rule, extreme cases of sickness or sorrow.

3rd. Bible readers to visit every house, but simply to inquire whether their services will be acceptable.

4th. Cottage readings to be established whenever practicable.

5th. Reports of visits and readings to be rendered weekly to the Supervisor.

6th. Cases where a clergyman's visits are required, to be reported to the Supervisor, or, if urgent, by note to the Secretary.

7th. Readers to refer all subscribers for bibles, and contributors to the funds of the Society, to the ladies visiting the districts.

Residents in the city who possess the blessing of the Holy Scriptures, are respectfully requested by the committee to aid the work.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the Society is held the first Tuesday in every month, at the residence of the President. When the Bible woman's report is read, money received from collectors, and accounts rendered.

Owing to many districts being unappropriated, we have not been able to support more than one Bible woman for the last year, which is very
