

PLAN OF THE WORK.

FIRST.—THE ALMANACK AND CALENDAR FOR 1834

SECOND.—THE STREET GUIDE; which, it is hoped, will be found of great use. The Streets are taken in Alphabetical order, beginning at the commencement of each Street. All Householders, with their occupations, and all matters of interest, are noticed; and for better guidance of the stranger as he is proceeding along and arrives at a Street running right and left, we have put—

CROSS ——— STREET. fol. 1 to 69.

THIRD—An Alphabetical List of the Inhabitants, with their occupation and residence. fol. 71 to 108.

FOURTH.—A REGISTER of all Civil, Ecclesiastical, Commercial, Legal, Medical, and Miscellaneous matters connected with the Town; an important POST-OFFICE LIST of every Mail-road in both Provinces, with their distances from York, and rates of Postage.

ERRATA AND ADDITIONS SINCE THE ALPHABETICAL LIST WENT TO PRESS.

It is particularly requested that the following names be inserted with the pen in their proper places in the ALPHABETICAL LIST, immediately the Book is received.

Bicket James, Land Agent, Accountant &c. 237½ King-st.

Barnhart Charles, Keeper of the Gaol, King-street.

Codd Margaret Eliza, Dry Goods Store, 76 King-street.

Daly Charles, Circulating Library, 187 King-street

Daly Richard, Carpenter, 62 Yonge-street.

Elmsley The Hon. John, Front-street, the late residence of H. J. Boulton, Esq.

Hamilton Robert, Auctioneer & Commission Merchant, 19 Church street.

Hill —, Steward of Osgoode Hall, at the Hall.

Hodge Mrs. Milliner and Dress-maker, 204 King-street

Preston T. J. Fashionable Tailoring, 168 King-st.

Sunlay R. W., Boot and Shoemaker, 176 King-street.

Thornhill R. W. Clerk in Crown Land's Office, Lot-street west, near the common.

Starke J. & T. A. Booksellers &c. 78 King-st.

Miller William, Families boarding house, Bishops buildings Newgate-street.

Stead George, Boot and Shoemaker, 132 King-street.

COM

ALM

B
AND