BEEF STEWED WITH SNAP BEANS.—Take four pounds of rather fat brisket, two finely chopped onions, a table-spoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of white pepper, as much cayenne pepper as you can take on the end of a penknife, six cloves, and a quart of water; have the water boiling before putting in your beef and seasoning; let it come to a boil after putting them in, then set it back on the stove to simmer for three hours, skimming occasionally; keep your pot closely covered, and be careful not to be it stop stewing; string and split lengthwise across the seed two quarts of beans; put them in with your beef, adding a tablespoonful of sugar and a gill of vinegar, and let them boil for half an hour.

RED RASPBERRIES IN CURRANT JELLY.—When the currant juice has boiled twenty minutes put in the proper quantity of sugar to make jelly, and immediately afterward add a quart of fresh red raspberries for every pint of currant juice; then, stir in an additional pound of sugar for each quart of berries used. For two pints of currant juice that would be two pounds of sugar, two quarts of berries and two more pounds of sugar. Let boil for five minutes, and turn into bowls or small earthern jars. Put brandied paper over the top of each jar, paste paper over, and set in a cool dry place. If possible use red and white currants mixed, for the color being lighter will better show the whole fruit imbedded in the jelly, but any way the flavor is delicious.
