CALL FOR CANADIAN DOCTORS FOR SERBIA

Quebec, March 2.—Sir Lormer Gouin, premier of Quebec, has a letter from Georges V. Todorovitch, secretary of the Serbian royal legation, asking for the names and addresses of Canadian doctors who would volunteer to serve in the Red Cross hospitals of Serbia. The letter says Serbia is in dire want of physicians to attend wounded soldiers, and adds that the volunteers speaking various languages would be much appreciated. No restriction is put on any one but the letter says that doctors speaking English, French or German, would be of help in the campaign.

VISIT PRIMECREST FARM

Come out and see just what it means to have milk from Primecrest Farm—the most complete and modern milk supply equipment, the only one of its kind, in fact, in the Maritime Provinces.

We consider it a privilege and a pleasure to receive visitors, to have them inspect the healthy, contented herd that furnish Primecrest Farm Milk; to show them through the clean, sweet, airy barns, then on to the milk room, the cooling and bottling departments, and to answer any questions they've a mind to ask.

It is not only interesting and instructive, but a duty you owe yourself and your family to see the source of supply, the methods of handling Primecrest Farm Milk.

ROSS MUST PAY $100 OR GO TO JAIL FOR FORTY DAYS

Sentence For Ringing in False Alarm of Fire—Chinese Opium Case Tomorrow

Fred Ross, who was arrested on a charge of ringing in a false fire alarm was fined $100 or forty days in jail by Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Policeman O'Neill and Detective Killen testified. When the prisoner was asked to plead he said he had been drinking that day and had not been near Wright street. He said he considered that they arrested him because he had been caught ringing in a false alarm once before.

Three Chinese, Hun Wing and Chong You, charged with smoking opium and Sam Lee, charged with having opium in his possession, are at central station as the result of a raid made by Detective Killen, Policeman McBride and three special policemen last night on Lee's store, 87 Brussels street. Lee had attempted to leave the city earlier in the evening but was arrested and pipes and opium were found in his suitcase seized. They were valued at about $150. His place was raided and the other two Chinese taken, together with more opium and pipes aggregating in value another $150.

In the police court this morning the three were remanded. They were not asked to plead and no evidence was taken. The case is to be resumed tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. One of the Chinese had a cough and a friend asked the magistrate to allow him out on that account. He said that his friend had heart trouble and was afraid to stay in the cell. The magistrate said he would let him out on $500 bail, but the sum was not forthcoming and they were sent below.

Two men and one woman were fined 88 or two months in jail for drunkenness.

A boy arrested for using obscene language was reprimanded and allowed to go home accompanied by his mother.

OVER POLICIES OF THE LATE J. W. KEIRSTEAD

Writs have been issued in the Supreme Court in the suits of Mrs. Helen C. Keirstead for insurance policies on life of the late J. W. Keirstead against the following companies: Railway Passenger Assurance Company, $20,000; Sun Life Assurance Company, $10,000; Dominion of Canada Guarantee and Accident Insurance Company, $5,000; Mutual Life Assurance Company, $5,000.

And in the suit of Keirstead & Mercereau, Ltd., The Great West Life Assurance Company, $10,000.

BREAK UP OF THE HIGHLAND PIPE BAND BECAUSE OF WAR

Members Away to Fight for the King and Empire

Citizens who are lovers of Highland pipe music, will regret to hear that, owing to many of its members having gone to the front or going, the St. John Highland Pipe Band has disbanded. Piper Alex Campbell left the other night by C. P. R. for Montreal to go on the staff of Major Malcolm McAvity. Mr. Campbell was piper in D. Company, 88 Battalion, of which Captain MacArthur is in command. Mr. Campbell was formerly piper in the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders, and piped that regiment through many a hard fight in the Boer war.

Another of the boys going is Piper Frank Ross, of this city. He is a son of Mrs. John Ross of Waterloo street, and can be seen at the head of the Army Service Corps.

Other members are on the firing line by this time, having either gone with the first Canadian Highland troops or back into their former Highland regiment. Those that are left belonging to the band are only two or three, and home affairs have kept them back.

MANY OUT OF WORK YET BECAUSE OF STORM

Quebec, March 2.—Although Quebec is gradually recovering from the shock of last week's storm, there are yet hundreds of men and women out of work on account of eleven factories being shut down from lack of power, transmitting wires have not yet been repaired. The havoc from the storm is tremendous.

HE SAYS GOSSIP; THE COURT SAYS DRINKING

Walter Cooper, who was arrested recently on a charge of threatening to split his wife's head open with a stove lifter, was brought into court this morning and further remanded. He said he was a laborer, employed at the winter port sheds in West St. John. The gossip of neighbors, he said, was the cause of trouble in his home, as his wife paid too much attention to it. On the other hand the magistrate said he had information that his frequent application to the bottle was the direct cause of the family squabbles. He sent him below until his wife could appear and tell her side of the story.

DIED IN THE WEST.

A letter received last evening by Mrs. John H. Paris brought the distressing news that her sister, Mrs. Charlotte Ketchum Griffith had died on February 22 in Edmonton, Alta., after a week's illness from pneumonia. She was the wife of Dr. James E. Griffith, a native of Woodstock, who has been practicing in the west for some time. Mrs. Griffith was a daughter of the late Francis Ketchum of this city, and besides her husband and sisters, is survived by one son, Francis K., of Cambridge, Mass., and four daughters, Mrs. F. H. Dow, Misses Madeline and Charlotte Louise, of Edmonton, and Margaret K., of Cambridge, Mass. Frank Ketchum of the post office staff here is a nephew and Miss Alice Barr Ketchum a niece.

George Dalzell Writes Home To Parents in Fairville

"Would Not Have Missed This War For Anything"—Well Clothed and Plenty to Eat—Back Again to Front After Time in Woolwich Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Dalzell of Fairville have just received another letter of interest from their son George who is with the British imperial forces in France or Belgium, fighting the Germans. The letter is dated from the field post and of course, gives no indication of the location. He is with the 8th Royal Field Artillery and is telephone instructor at the 14th Brigade headquarters. He writes in part—

"We have been on the firing line some time. It is very interesting. You don't want to think too much what will happen to me as I don't care for my part and it is only for your sake that I worry. Your gloves arrived. They are excellent."

"As I am writing the shells are screaming all around us. They have been in front of us, behind us, both sides, but they will not come here, as my luck is in."

"I would not have missed this war for anything. The German is a crafty beast and it takes us all the time to steer clear of their shells but we have them beaten already."

"I get plenty to eat and am comfortable and have plenty of good warm clothes. Don't send a muffler as I have one, a dandy, given to me by a lady in England. Send paper and envelopes but not stamped. I saw in the newspaper about the bridge blown up at Vancouver. This paper is part of a Belgian day book."

Corporal Dalzell, though thirty-two years old, is not seeing active service for the first time. He was with the British army for three years in South Africa, part of the time in the Boer war. He was for five years in India and then on the reserve list for four years. When the call came to take up arms again he was in Prince Rupert, B. C.

In either the Battle of Mons or the Battle of the Marne in the present war he was thrown from his horse and trampled on as a result of which he was in Woolwich Hospital for a time but some weeks ago, having recovered he was again at the front. Corporal Dalzell's home is at North Head, Grand Falls, but the family recently came to Fairville to live.

From William Hayes.

William Hayes, of the C. A. S. C., in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Henry Hayes, 122 Market Road, tells of his detachment having received orders to leave for France on the following Sunday. The letter is dated from Tidworth and he says that "Shaggy" and all the other St. John boys have left for different places," but whether in England or for the front he does not explain. He had just returned after six days leave, which he enjoyed in London.

At a meeting of the directors of the C. A. S. C., last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. C. Gregory; vice-president, M. J. Doherty; treasurer, M. D. Brown, and secretary, W. H. Allingham.

NEW TARIFF MADE BIG CUSTOMS RECEIPTS HERE IN FEBRUARY

The revenue of the customs house for this port of St. John for February showed a substantial increase of $2,487.87 over the corresponding month in 1914, but this was partly due to the rush of merchants to enter their goods before the new tariff went into effect. The figures are as follows:

	1914	1915
Duties	$125,741.77	$126,032.37
Sick mariners fees	1,198.98	826.23
Totals	$126,940.75	$126,858.60
Inland revenue receipts for February showed an increase of $2,221.87 over February, 1914 as follows:
	1914	1915
Spirits	$3,401.96	12,176.88
Tobacco	nil	nil
Cigars	305.50	896.00
Haw leaf	539.28	178.90
Bonded wine	94.90	68.14
Other receipts	2,817.38	2
Other receipts	2,817.82	2,666.51
Totals	$18,189.26	$15,481.13

LECTURE LAST NIGHT

In the rooms of the Father Mathew Association in St. Malachi's Hall, last evening, Rev. Dr. Bourgeois gave an interesting address dealing with Rome and the Vatican. He dealt with his subject in a remarkably entertaining way, and gave pleasure to all who heard him. His descriptions of Rome, the Vatican, St. Peter's with their works of art and sculpture, proved particularly instructive. Dr. Bourgeois told of having been in audience some eight or nine times with the late Pope Pius, and of having seen the present Pope Benedict on his elevation to the office of cardinal.

GIVEN A CHANCE

Thomas Davis, who was sentenced to nine months in jail recently on a charge of drunkenness and interfering with pedestrians, was given his freedom by Magistrate Ritchie this morning. He told Davis if he would take the "edge" and send the document to him within forty-eight hours that he could go. If the document was not forthcoming, Davis was to be re-arrested and made serve the full penalty.

PAINFULLY INJURED

Miss Adelaide Kiernin, of North End, was painfully injured last night in a fall down a flight of steps which rendered her unconscious for some time. She sustained severe injuries to her head, besides being badly shaken up. The young woman was attended by Dr. P. J. Hogan. Her friends are hopeful that her injuries will not prove serious.
