W. C. BROOKS WRITES FROM BELGIUM TO AUNT HERE

People Told of Germans Throwing Wounded French Soldiers Into River
Mrs. H. H. Carr of Manawagonish road, Fairville, received a letter yesterday from her nephew W. C. Brooks, who is with the 48th Highlanders, 15th Battalion, first Canadian contingent. The letter was dated April 18, and was written from some part of Belgium. The writer formerly resided in Cobalt. He said they were enroute to the firing line via Belgium. On their travels they saw beautiful cities which had been practically devastated by the Germans. He spoke in particular of one city they entered and told of a river into which the people said the Germans threw wounded French soldiers. He said while they were encamped on its banks they saw the body of a dead French soldier floating on the water. The boys, he said, were anxious to get into the fight and they did not seem to fear the consequences.

Many friends will hear of her death with regret.

MORE EVIDENCE IN OPIUM CASE

The case against Hop Lee, charged with keeping an opium den in Mill street, and also against six Chinese as inmates, was continued in the police court this morning.
Henry Willie testified that he went into Hop Lee's about ten o'clock on the night in question. As he entered the big room Jeffrey, he said, caught him by the coat and took out two keys and three coppers. He said Jeffrey pointed his revolver at him and made him sit down in a chair, ordering him to keep quiet.
Hum Hong said he went to Hop Lee's about eight o'clock on the night during which Policeman Jeffrey raided the shop. Hum Hong was sleeping in a room when he saw Jeffrey come in. The witness said that when Jeffrey came in he caught Hop Lee by the throat at the door and wanted $800 and if he had not the money he wanted opium. When Jeffrey fired the revolver the report woke Hum Hong. When he jumped up Jeffrey pointed the revolver at him and he fell back in the bed again. He said he saw Jeffrey take a black handkerchief and a fountain pen from Harry Willie. He said the pipes produced in court were Chinese tobacco pipes.
E. Hoey said he is seventeen years old. He came to Canada when he was six years old and lived in Vancouver and Montreal. He came to St. John six years ago. He heard a noise in Hop Lee's and went in to see what was the matter. When he saw Jeffrey with the revolver he tried to get out again but the policeman would not let him. He corroborated the statements of the others regarding Jeffrey's actions.
The case is being continued this afternoon.
Stanley Robertson was fined $16 or four months in jail on a charge of drunkenness and using profane language. A man arrested last night on a drunkenness charge was remanded.
Morris Howard was again remanded on a vagrancy charge. Magistrate Ritchie said arrangements should be made to send him back to Toronto.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

An event of much local interest will take place in the Church of the Good Shepherd on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when John Wesley Cunningham, son of William Cunningham of Lorneville, and Miss Edie E. Seeley, niece of William Stevens of Main street, Fairville, will be united in matrimony by Rev. W. P. Dunham. After the ceremony lunch will be served at the home of Mr. Stevens.
At the service in memory of Rudolf F. McKiel on last Sunday in the Church of the Good Shepherd the Lancaster troop of Boy Scouts attended in a body under Scout Master G. H. Allan. The boys all wore uniforms and occupied a prominent place in the church. Immediately after the service the troop was lined up in front of the church and J. C. Maxwell of the Carleton Corset Band, played "The Last Post" and "Lights Out", the troop standing at the salute.
This thoughtful ceremony was very well carried out and reflected credit, not only being a fitting close to the service of the late soldier but in the manner in which the troop executed their orders.
A few men were at work this morning on the new bridge but the inclement weather is expected to impede progress.
A. R. Clark & Son, who have the contract to build the concrete roadway expect it will take about two months to complete the job.

ARE MORE ST. JOHN MEN AT FRONT?

Joseph Lifford of 12th Battalion In Casualty List
WOUNDED IN BELGIUM
Officially Designated as of 12th Battalion and This May Mean That Those Left in England Have Since Gone to the Trenches
John Lifford, of the 53th Battalion, returned last night to this city, where he is quartered with his unit, after a visit over Sunday to his home in Fredericton. Just before leaving his home there he received word that his brother, Private Joseph Lifford of the 12th Battalion had been wounded in Belgium and was now in hospital in France. It is possible that the infantry from St. John and other parts of the province, known formerly as the 12th Battalion, are now on the firing line. The suggestion comes from the fact that the official word received at the home of Private Lifford in Fredericton stated that his brother was listed as in the 12th Battalion. It will be remembered that in previous instances when men from this province were named in the casualty list, many of them had transferred from the 12th to some other, and the number of the new Brunswick-Quebec unit was not given. The fact of the official list mentioning Lifford as in the 12th, causes the question as to whether the men of the infantry from here are still as a unit in England, or whether they have been taken to the continent.
Two Moncton Men Wounded
Gordon A. Steeves of Moncton, son of R. A. Steeves, was wounded at Langemark. He is twenty-six years of age, but has been working away from home for the past six years. When the war broke out he was engaged with the Northern Electric Company at Montreal, where he enlisted in what subsequently became known as the 14th Battalion, a corps which suffered heavily at Langemark. He was for two years employed in the business department of the Moncton Transcript.
Michael Leahy, son of Mrs. Thomas Leahy of Moncton also was wounded. He had been employed for several years with the Canadian Pacific at Winnipeg, and when war broke out he enlisted at that city with the 10th Battalion, otherwise known as the "Light Black Devils." According to London dispatches, it was this tenth battalion, which led the charge and bore the brunt of the battle, which followed the capture of four Canadian guns. Michael Leahy is twenty-seven years of age.
J. Fred Edgett of Moncton has received a cable from his brother, Captain Edgett, a veterinary surgeon, advising him that he had come safely through the battle of Langemark. Captain Edgett was the headmaster of the Canadian Division.
Chatham Man Wounded
Col. McCulley of Chatham has received word that his eldest son, Caleb, was wounded in France at the Ypres. He joined the 1st Grenadiers or Royal Montreal regiment and since his arrival in France was in the 14th Battalion. He is now being cared for in a hospital in England. McCulley's son, Charles McCulley, is in the 5th Battalion or the 2nd Brigade, which is the one to which G. J. Merrecaux has been attached. The 5th Brigade has been heavily engaged. No word has as yet been received about him. Major Edgards, late of Chatham, and Andrew, son of W. H. Baldwin of Douglasville, are also members of the 5th Battalion.

LOWER PART OF MAIN STREET WAS IN FLOOD

Choked Catch Basin Gave Start and Downpour of Rain Did the Rest
"I say, old chap, what time does the next ferry cross?" asked a stranger in Indianston this morning as he stood on the corner of Albert street and viewed with dismay and apprehension an extensive sheet of water stretching from the doorways of a row of buildings across Main street, and over the car tracks. The water was quite deep on the inside edges where there was a shallowness it was possible to pass through it with rubber boots, but in the center on the outer edges of the sidewalk rubber boots were the safer article.
Since yesterday afternoon about five o'clock this "flood" has been steadily rising. It started with the choking of a catch basin which had been caught in time, would probably not have given further trouble. But the basin was choked and the water began to back up. Soon it was over the curbstone. Next it was half way across the sidewalk and an equal distance over towards the car tracks. Then it seemed to reach the goal of its ambition and began at first to trickle, then to precipitately pour, down into the cellar of the property owned by M. J. Murphy.
Throughout the night the rain fell heavily. This morning a "bucket brigade" was organized. Out on the roadway they scooped up the water in pulleys, and poured it into a sewer. This continued for some time, but it was like balling a leaking boat.
Finally the workmen of the water and sewerage department began to make a cut across the roadway to drain the water off. The water was easily knee-deep in parts near the gutter. The workmen succeeded in draining off the overflow and in clearing the catch basin, but only after a work of at least two or three hours, with strenuous labor on a pumping machine, superintended by Commissioner Wigmore. Before they did so, however, there were some humorous attempts at preventing feet from being wet, the small boys had plenty of fun in "sailing toy ships", and one man in a supreme endeavor at sarcasm, donned his rubber boots, took a fishing pole, and stood for a time "whipping the stream" and let on pulling up his line a gaspercaux was caught on the hook. It had of course been placed there previously, needless to explain, but the incident afforded laughter.
