H. A. Powell Tells Methodist Conference of International Problems Settled—Proceedings of Church Gathering

The historical society of the Methodist conference met at the banquet table in Centenary church on Saturday evening and, after supper, proceeded with the business of the society.

In an address of unusual interest H. A. Powell, K. C., referred to the war and the causes which had led up to it. He said that he was an advocate of peace and the settlement of disputes through arbitration. As an illustration of the effectiveness of this method he said that the International Waterways commission, of which he is a member, is continually settling international disputes, one of which settled only recently, was more weighty than that which led to the war between Great Britain and the United States a hundred years ago and comparable to that which precipitated the present war.

Other speakers included Rev. J. C. Berrie, George A. Henderson, Rev. F. H. Wightman, Rev. C. A. Ross, C. H. Sampson, John C. Weddall, Judge McKeown and Dr. J. H. Hazelwood.

The hope that a permanent museum with church records and relics might be established was expressed.

The banquet table was spread by the ladies of Centenary church with delicate taste. The younger people of the church served. The ladies were presided over by Mrs. W. G. Smith and included the following: Mesdames Snider, E. B. Nixon, Anderson, Skinner, Ferguson, Palmer, LeLacheur, Calkin, Crockett, Hennigar, Lawrence, Paul, Williams, Jenkins, Robertson, Knowles and Miss Nixon.

The following were waitresses: Misses Pauline Jenkins, Bessie Holder, Nan Powers, Julia Hennigar, Marjorie Calkin, Hazel Delmsted, Mabel Barbour, Agnes Robertson, Dorothy Matthews, Mabel Barbour, Annie Balleley (conductor), and Mrs. Thompson.

Rev. J. K. King

To his associates in the New Brunswick and P. E. Island Methodist conference, assembled in ministerial session in Centenary church on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. K. King, of the Nashua district, stated his case, the matter of certain statements of a un-British character alleged to have been made by him, having come under discussion. His position in the ministry and the conference was considered with many members taking part in the discussion, and after he had also given his views, on the strength of his statements that he was not in good health, and in fact had not been for some time, he was placed upon the supernumerary list for the time being.

A successor will be appointed to the Nashua district.

At the morning session Rev. Dr. Johnson of Halifax and Rev. Dr. Creighton of Toronto, spoke of the work of the church papers and the proposed amalgamation. A vote of confidence in and appreciation of the services of Rev. Mr. Johnson and F. W. Mosher was passed.

Ordinations

Rev. Richard Opie, president of the conference, officiated at the close of the morning service yesterday when Rev. E. F. Brodie, Rev. Kenneth Kingston and Rev. Hubert T. Smith were ordained to the ministry.

On the platform with Mr. Opie were the ex-president, Rev. F. A. Whightman, Rev. D. R. Chown, secretary of the conference, Rev. Dr. Howard Sprague, of the faculty of theology, Mount Allison; Rev. George F. Dawson, St. Stephen; Rev. Thomas Marshall, Fredericton, and Rev. W. H. Barracough, pastor of the church. The sermon was delivered by the ex-president on the text "Ambassadors of Christ," and was practical and very appropriate. This was followed by a solo, "Send Your Heart and Not Your Garments," by C. B. Skelton.

The ordination ceremony followed, Mr. Opie officiating and about a dozen or more of the clergymen and prominent laymen in the conference, assisting.

In the afternoon there was an open session of the Sunday school at Centenary, and there were many visitors from the conference. Rev. C. W. Squires, M.A., D.D., of Campbellton, gave an address, the theme being the psychology of the child, which contained splendid practical advice to school teachers.

At the evening service, Rev. J. E. Hazelwood, secretary of the department of social service, occupied the pulpit, and took his sermon from the prayer of the penitent thief.

THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER

Opening Tonight With a Big Cast and Modern

"The King of all modern comic operas," "The Chocolate Soldier" tuncful, clean, free from all vulgarity and doubtful comedy too often seen in musical attractions—with a cast containing such artists as Francis J. Boyle, Tena Rastband, Walter Greene, George Tallman, W. H. White, Kittle Burke and Della Nevins, opens a week's engagement at the Opera House tonight. The attraction comes direct from New York—something of an expensive trip when one considers that there are about forty people with the company and that it required a sixty foot baggage car, packed to the doors, to transport all the company's scenery, costumes and effects. So great is the expense of the attraction it is probable that St. John, Halifax and one or two other places will be the only ones favored with a view of the company this season.

Ed. E. Root, the general manager of the F. C. Whitney Opera Company, who is with the company as manager, in conversation this morning said that he considered the present cast with the company to be absolutely the best he had seen with the Chocolate Soldier since the first performance. There is no question but that St. John theatre goers are in for a musical treat this week. The city has not been favored with a high class theatrical attraction this season, due to a mistaken impression among New York theatrical managers that eastern Canada had no business to give them, but if The Chocolate Soldier meets with generous patronage there is no doubt that other first class companies will come later.

The Chocolate Soldier should break all previous records on this visit for nothing has been left undone by the Whitney management to make the production high grade, even to carrying a special orchestra of picked musicians to make sure of a proper rendition of the many musical gems in the opera.

The twin towns of Dover and Foxcroft, Me., claim the record for married pairs who have enjoyed fifty years or more of married life. There are twelve such, including Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Oaks, who have been married 50 years.

(Carleton Observer)

Dr. L. de. McIntosh has left Hartland for England, having been accepted as a surgeon in the Royal Army Medical Corps.

Doctor Mac Intosh, of Scottish parentage, is a native of Inverness, Ont. Graduating from McGill in 1904, he first began the practice of his profession here in 1908, and has been very successful. He has also become identified with several local enterprises, among them the Farmers' Telephone Co., Hartland Cement Block Co., Gulguse Black Fox Co., Cloverbrook Stock Farm, and Carleton and Victoria Poultry Association. Not alone will he be missed by the many whose confidence and gratitude he gained in a professional way, but his business associates will find it not easy to replace his careful judgment and shrewd advice.

Soon after coming to Hartland, the doctor married Miss Dora Remley, of New York, and her untimely death occurred last October. His only child, a lad of eight years, is left in care of his sister-in-law, Miss Remley, who will look after certain details of his business.

Dr. A. F. McIntosh, of Andover, came down to bid adieu to his brother. Before returning he will visit St. John, where he will pass examination for entrance into the N. B. Medical Society. Later he may accompany Mrs. C. A. MacCormack to Montreal, where she will submit to an operation for goitre.
