

Between Good Flour and Flour That's Good Enough

THE DIFFERENCE between good and bad, Madam? Just as great as between eggs fresh from the "cackle" and others of more ancient vintage.

Just as great as between "all-wool" and "art and 'arf."

Might add that good flour and poor flour are divided by a price difference and, incidentally, a baking difference.

Which explains why you would gladly pay just a little more to get FIVE ROSES certain.

Because it's worth more, and practically all cheap flours are faultful flours.

FIVE ROSES, Madam, is worth the money.

We are convinced that nothing so rich in the dear-to-the-taste flavor of the ripe, red Manitoba spring wheat berry, so entirely different in general merit has ever been offered to the discriminating housewife.

A pound goes farther in the position of strength and abiding power would make its difference much above the price your dealer asks.

Even if all other millers were to get the same plump, rounded, wholesome berries of course, merely a suggestion, you know, and they had the same facilities for receiving and storing the grain, to prevent possible spoiling before reaching the mills.

And they had millage perfect as the Keweenaw Pure-Flour plant to grind this prime grain—

Yet their product would not begin to compare with FIVE ROSES.

Because FIVE ROSES, Madam, is all of these plus the scientific know-how, expert skill and long-continued care which no other flour contains.

You must expect to pay for some of the things you receive.

They have declared that only flour really "good enough" for them and the housewife faces around the board.

It is well known to connoisseurs of a fine family possession that once FIVE ROSES enters a home, that family is forever spoiled for any other flour.

You know how hard to please your own folks are, Madam.

They'll off the FIVE ROSES.

The seven men suffered only minor bruises and burns, except Fireman Desrochers, who was very severely burned. The fire was started by the tenant, Auree Viau, who was trying to fix gas pipes, when his candle set fire to woodwork.

Shot Dead As He Was Housecleaning

Toronto, May 7.—(Special)—Mrs. J. H. Finley, of Wingham, aged thirty-three, was house cleaning yesterday when an errand boy came along. He was asked to take a shotgun down from the wall and in doing so the weapon discharged. Mrs. Finley was shot through the head and immediately killed.

MURDER IN MONTREAL; MANY NEAR

Prisoner Arrested on Theft Charge Shoots Constable Fortin Dead in Street and Badly Wounds Fellow Policeman—People in Terror

Montreal, Que., May 7.—(Special)—Constable Fortin was shot to death and Constable O'Connell badly injured last evening by a man whom they arrested for suspected theft. O'Connell had made the arrest and the prisoner was resisting when Fortin passed and assisted his brother policeman.

They were in St. James street, and as soon as the second policeman came along the man stopped resisting, and seemed to submit. The two constables with their prisoner were within 100 yards of the station when the man suddenly drew a revolver and shot Fortin through the head, killing him instantly.

He then turned and shot O'Connell in the stomach and ran away.

Although there were many people in the street at the time none dared interfere with the man as he still had the revolver in his hand, and he got clear.

HAMILTON WOMEN DO NOT APPROVE OF VOTE RESOLUTION

Hamilton, Ont., May 7.—The local council of women, at its quarterly meeting, placed itself on record as opposed to votes for women for the time being at least.

The agenda of the national council, which is to meet, was discussed at length, and it contained a resolution on suffrage.

The local council did not think it wise to endorse the resolution, and instructed its delegates to vote against it.

The following delegates will represent the local council at the meeting of the national council: Mrs. Sanford, president of the local council; Lady Taylor, provincial vice-president of the national council; Mrs. McLagan, Mrs. Walbert and Mrs. Lyke.

Miss Harris and Miss Bennett.

MR. HERMAN DYING OF STONE IN THE BLADDER

Gin Pills Passed the Stone

513 James St., Hamilton.

"Four years ago I was taken down with what the doctors called inflammation of the bladder—intense pain in the back and loins, great pain and difficulty in urinating. The pain was greatest in the region of the bladder, and the attacks, which became more frequent, amounted to unbearable agony, and I became so weak that I could not walk across the floor. Doctors could do nothing to help me. My wife read in the paper about Gin Pills and sent for a box.

From the very first I felt that Gin Pills were doing me good. The pain was relieved at once, and the attacks were less frequent. In six weeks the Stone in the bladder came away and the pain stopped entirely. I have had no return of the trouble and have not lost a day's work on account of it. I cannot express myself strong enough when I speak of what Gin Pills have done for me. When I remember how I suffered, and how now I am healthy and well and strong and able to do a full day's work, I feel I should speak and tell other sufferers of my experience and of the wonderful merits of Gin Pills."

JOHN HERMAN.

You don't have to buy Gin Pills to test them. Simply write The National Drug & Chemical Co., Dept. R. S., Toronto, and a free sample will be sent you by return mail. CHINESE PIGEON CASE

Editor Times:—Sir,—In referring to Chinese plucking pigeons alive, that is not a rare case. For I have stood and watched them in Chinatown in Vancouver, B. C., take heavy plucking, hang them up by the head and pluck them alive, and a Chinaman will not buy a fowl out west unless it is alive.

SOLD LIQUOR TO YOUNG GIRLS, HE IS FINED $50

St. Catharines, Ont., May 7.—Perhaps the first case of its kind ever tried here, that of a kind which has been extremely rare in Canada, came up in police court when John Sullivan, a bartender at the St. Catharines House, was charged by Chief of Police Greene with selling liquor to minors. The minors in question were three young girls who were served with liquor in an upstairs room in the hotel. Sullivan fought the case with a lawyer, but the evidence against him was so direct that Magistrate Campbell found him guilty, fining him $50 and costs or one month in jail.

"This practice of selling liquor to minors is one very hard to get evidence on," said Chief Greene, commenting on the case. "In such cases it is my opinion that the license inspectors could do a lot of good, because they are around during the daytime when much of the drinking by youths under age is done. The police cannot hope to do much unless it would be with officers in plain clothes."

YOU CONTROL THE USE OF YOUR FUEL IF YOU USE A GAS STOVE

Considerable fuel is wasted in cooking the old way. It takes time to get a fire and during that time fuel is being burned. Not so with a Gas Range, you turn on the gas and your fire is ready, when you are through cooking you turn it off and that's the end of it; you burn fuel only when you want it; you will save money by starting to cook this way now. Don't delay.
