CRITICISM OF CONDITIONS IN MONTREAL CITY

Montreal, Jan. 28.—Slashing criticism of this city in relation to social conditions was heard here last night at the annual meeting of the Montreal Council of Social Agencies. President J. S. Briery declared that there was no city in the western world where conditions were worse than they had been here during the last quarter of a century. The bulk of the cost of maintenance of the hospitals, he said, fell on the English speaking and Protestant group, whilst in education the Protestants here also had to bear the cost in respect of children who were neither Protestant nor Catholic. Further, neither municipal nor provincial authorities had assumed responsibility for the care of the sick or for those who were delinquent or handicapped.

WARM WELCOME FOR THE PRINCE IN SYDERBAD

Sydenhale, India, Jan. 28.—The Prince of Wales arrived here today. He was received at the railway station with the customary ceremonial after which he drove in an open carriage with the Nieman, Osman Ali Khan, four miles to Falknuma Palace. Everywhere a reception was given an enthusiastic reception by the crowds, who were in holiday spirits. The streets were profusely decorated. There was no suggestion of a boycott of the prince.

Thoughts on Thrift

They have been celebrating Thrift Week in the United States, the country which periodically sets aside a day or a week for concentration on some idea. The occasion has brought forth the statement of many thoughts too often forgotten, and B. C. Forbes, in the course of his argument, in The Philadelphia Ledger, says—
"To me thrift means: The diligent use of my time and my talents, and the wisest possible use of the rewards, the money I receive in return—always keeping the future in mind."
"I was early taught that it was well to be prepared for a rainy day. I also had it impressed upon my mind by my struggling parents that he who did not look after his money would some day have to be looked after by someone else, and that no self-respecting person could or would do anything likely to make him become an object of charity at the hands of others."
"Thrift is pictured not as something miserly, not as something contemptible, but as something manly, as the stuff of which sturdy independence was formed."
"How sound all this is, also how urgently it needs to be drummed into

A Profitable Profession for Women

McLeish Hospital Training School for Nurses offers a three years' course in the care and treatment of nervous and mental diseases, with affiliations that also offer training in medical, surgical and obstetrical work. Instruction consists of lectures and practical work on the wards. Board, room and laundry are furnished and an allowance of $80 per month for the first and second years, and $46 per month for the third year. This course is open to young women who have had one year or equivalent in high school. Entrance at any time during the year. For information apply at once to
