Zuma Wins Marathon.
(Canadian Press Despatch) Boston, April 19.—The American marathon road race, with the leading long distance runners of the continent contesting, was won today in new record time by Frank Zuma, of Newark (N.J.), a former doughboy, who hiked with a smile. In the van almost from the start, Zuma speeded up his stride in the last fourteen miles, pulled away from Charles Mellor, of Chicago, who had been his running mate much of the distance, and finished the twenty-five mile run in 2 hours 18 minutes 57.3-5 seconds. This record of his was more than two minutes faster than that of Michael J. Ryan, of New York, whose victory in 2 hours 21 minutes 18.1-5 seconds in 1912 was the best previous time for the event.

Mellor finished second, a tired runner, 3 minutes 14.2-5 seconds behind the winner, and in third place was Peter Trivoulidas, of New York, winner last year.

Former winners ranked high again, as Carl W. A. Linder, of Boston, victor in 1919, was fourth and Edouard Fabre, of Montreal, winner six years ago, was sixth. William J. Kennedy, of New York, the bricklayer who plodded home first in 1917, finished fourteenth today.

Alfred Rodgers, of Halifax, ended in twelfth place. Time, 2:38.51.2-4.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U., with their president Mrs. D. Hipwell, turned out in force last evening to give the east end boys' club a treat. A liberal supply of bread, cake and doughnuts, washed down with fresh milk from sanitary cups was enjoyed by the boys, but the first visitors themselves were entertained by the club under the direction of Miss Heffer and Peter Murray. There was a chorus, a reading by Harry Pearson, songs by Mr. Murray, a clever comedy sketch by six boys in costume, a relay race, dumbbell and Indian club exercises and a pre-acting contest. Prizes were awarded as follows:—Arthur Wall, junior dumbbell, Joe Wall and Harry Mc-Laughlin intermediate; Arthur Fishwick, Indian clubs. The judges were Mrs.
Geo. Dishart and Mrs. A. M. Belding.
Judge Ritchie addressed the boys. A. M.
Belding made the presentation of prizes, and paid a tribute to Mr. Murray's splendid voluntary work as instructor in wrestling and gymnastics, and to that of A. G. Staples who gave the boys lessons in woodwork. Toy beds, tables, chairs and other handiwork, finished and painted, were exhibited as examples of this work. Mrs. Hipwell for the W. C. T. U. spoke to the boys on the subject of a pledge against cigarettes and beer drinking, praised them for their work and expressed the hope that they would all grow up to be good men and useful citizens. The national anthem closed the very pleasant evening's programme.

MUSICAL TREAT AT OPERA HOUSE

Excellent Violin Selections, High Class Singing Offerings, and a Unique and Scientific Variety Novelty.

There was a treat in store for music lovers in the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening at the presentation of the new mid-week programme. Artistic violin selections, tuneful duets, quartettes and solos combined in making one of the most pleasing half enjoyed for some time.

An exciting episode of the serial drama, "Fighting Fate" featuring William Duncan, was enjoyed. Lucy Bruch, "The Little Gypsy Violinist," regaled all with excellent renditions. Her technique was that of an artist, and her harmonious clear and true. She played a variety of selections and every one evoked appreciative applause.

Gallagher and Foley, in a comedy black-face skit, amused all. Their jokes and repartee were good and their dancing catchy and well executed.

The four Organie girls scored a hit in a high-class singing offering termed "A Bouquet of Song." All four possess strong, clear and pleasing voices and their many solos, duets and quartettes were teaming with harmony. The act was attractively staged and the costumes very pretty.

Bert Rome and Betty Wager, in a comedy singing skit, "Come on Red," also won popular favor. Their amusing repartee was enjoyed and their singing was exceptionally good. They were the recipients of hearty applause.

A most unique and scientific act was that of the Three Kervilles. The male member is a brilliant billiardist, and his execution of shots off the cushion were astounding. He seemed to have almost perfect control of the ivory and was able to send them at any angle into various kinds of receptacles. Bicycle riding, etc., was also skilfully performed, and all contributed in making their offering a hit.

This programme will be repeated tonight and again on Thursday afternoon and evening, and is expected to attract capacity houses.

FINE OF $1,000 IN OPIUM CASE

Hum Tong, alias Hum Sek, charged with unlawfully giving opium and also having opium in his possession, and Fong Finn, charged with having opium in his possession, were again before the police court yesterday afternoon and the maximum fine of $1,000 was imposed on Tong and a fine of $200 on Finn. As they were unable to pay the fine they went to jail. One witness told of going to Tong's store where he bought a pound of opium at $85 for another man.
M. V. Paddock told of analyzing the product seized and said that it was commercial opium. Detective Donahue also gave evidence. Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., conducted the prosecution.

A case against John Gardner, charged with non-support, was resumed and the accused gave evidence to the effect that he tried to get work but was unable to do so. Reuben Maher, foreman at Pender's Nail Works, spoke favorably of the accused. The magistrate remanded the accused to jail, saying that if some person will give him work he can go on suspended sentence. K. A. Wilson represented the accused.
