RECENT WEDDINGS

Stearns-Eagles.
A charming wedding took place at 4.45 yesterday afternoon at the St. John's (Stone) church when Canon G. A. Kurling united in marriage Miss Edythe Mary Eagles, daughter of John S. Eagles and the late Edith U. Eagles, to William Godefrich Stearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stearns, of this city. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Beatrice Eagles, of New York, (B. L.) was given in a traveling suit of blue serge with hat to match and she wore a grey squirrel tie. She also carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The groom was supported by his brother, E. LeBaron Stearns, of Moncton. The wedding march was played by Robert S. Coupe. Mrs. George K. Bell sang "O perfect love" and the choir of St. James church sang several selections. The bride, who was formerly employed by the Western Union and the groom, who is employed by L. L. Sharpe & Son, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts including a substantial check from the groom's father. The groom's gift to the bride was a seal scarf and the bridesmaid a gold brooch, and to the ushers gold cuff links.

Lyons-Sisson.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the officiating clergyman, 88 Duke street, yesterday afternoon, Aug. 17, when Rev. F. S. Dowling united in marriage Miss Cecil E. Sisson, of Andover (N. B.), and Owen P. Lyons, of New Hampshire. Mr. and Mrs. Lyons will take up their residence in Boston.

DeMerchant-Kee.

Miss Ethel E. Kee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kee, and Oscar L. DeMerchant were married in St. James church yesterday afternoon by Rev. H. A. Cody. The bride wore a costume of midnight blue satin and a black and white georgette crepe with a black silk-plush hat, she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. The church was very prettily decorated with flowers and ferns, the work having been done by girl friends of the bride. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung by the church choir and Heber C. Collins sang "Because." Miss Kee is a graduate nurse, having obtained her training at the Public Hospital and is very well known among the younger people of the city. Mr. DeMerchant is overseas with the 116th Battalion and served in France until late in the war. He is now engaged in the lumber business at Queenstown. Mr. and Mrs. DeMerchant left by the Valley train for the Tobique. They will make the return journey by canoe and later take up their residence in Queenstown.

Parker-Stevens.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the home of Rev. O. E. and Mrs. Stevens, Clements (N. S.), on Wednesday morning, Aug. 10, when Miss Hazel B. Stevens, B. A., eldest daughter of the officiating clergyman, became the bride of Oswald Waldo Parker, of Wakefield (Mass.). The groom was a member of the class '16 Acadia College, and now a public accountant, Boston. The bride is a graduate of Acadia College of the class '16. Mr. and Mrs. Parker carry good wishes of their many home friends.

Patterson-McGirr.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waring Harrington, 88 Mecklenburg street, last evening, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson united in marriage Gordon Albert Patterson and Miss Annamary Elizabeth McGirr, both of St. John. The bride and groom were unattended and the ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will reside in St. John.

McMaster-Magee.

Margaret Lillian Magee, daughter of John H. Magee, East St. John (N. B.), and Glen Lane McMasters, of Seymour, were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian church, Colorado Springs (Col.), by Rev. Samuel Galwin on Aug. 12. The groom is a world's war veteran and a linotype operator, and the bride is a trained nurse. Mr. and Mrs. McMasters will make their home in Colorado Springs.
