On the Scandinavian there were eighteen men for New Brunswick and two for Nova Scotia. Of the New Brunswick men there were four St. John soldiers—Lieut. R. F. Harrington, of City Road, formerly on the recruiting staff of the Forestry Corps here; Sergt. G. W. London, Private P. Gibbons and Pte. G. Sargeson. The men were met at the boat by the Soldiers' Reception Committee who boarded the liner and distributed smokes and light "eats" to the men, all of which were greatly appreciated by the soldiers.

One of Canada's most distinguished soldiers was in charge of the party on the Scandinavian in the person of Lieut.—Colonel Francis Milton, D.S.O., of western Ontario. "He enlisted in the early part of the war and up to the time he was invalided home had seen service with several Canadian units at the front.

service with several Canadian units at the front.

Lieut.-Colonel Fred Palmer was among the distinguished military men of the party. This officer has had a varied experience in the present war being in a German prison camp for almost two years. He enlisted in the 1st C. M. R., and went over in the second contingent in the early part of 1915 as a major. At Sanctuary Wood he was taken prisoner and was taken to Munster Camp. From time to time he was given a taste of true German prison camp life, and was at one time under the authority of probably the severest prison camp in the land of Fritz. He was, however, eventually exchanged through the ordinary channels, but this was not accomplished without difficulty. He reached Holland where he engaged for some time in Canadian Red Cross work. Colonel Palmer enlisted in the west, where he lived.

Lieutenant Doudy who went overseas in the ranks and won his commission on the field, was a member of the party.

Lieutenant J. W. Harding, nephew of J. S. Harding, this city, was among those to arrive yesterday. He enlisted in Montreal.

Lieutenant R. F. Harrington, of City road, was the only local officer on board. Lieutenant Harrington has seen considerable service in France. He enlisted here with the Forestry Corps and following his arrival in France was transferred to the Canadian Rallway troops where he did valuable work. He was eight months on active service in the zone and during that time had some narrow escapes. He was slightly wounded which, however, necessitated his removal to England. He was convalescent in hospital when the armistice was signed, but had recovered sufficiently to witness its celebration in London. Lieutenant Harrington is well known in St. John. He was formerly on the local recruiting staff in Prince William street for the Forestry Corps and did good work previous to his going across. He was given a warm welcome home vesterday and seems apparently none the worse of his experience.

In Trinity Church.

The evening service in Trinity church was indeed impressive and Canon Armstrong paid a glorious tribute to the memory of those members of the congregation who had laid down their lives in the cause of righteousness. The music at the service was purticularly fine and was arranged by James S. Ford, who presided at the organ. The anthem was "The Souls of the Righteous" by Noble, and the solo "Christ Shall Wipe Away All Tears" by Sullivan, was sung. In the middle of the service the Dead March from Saul was played.

The names of those that were thus honored by the congregation are as follows: Edward Wilson Bean, William Samuel Hare, Arthur Vernon Hatch, James Walter Holly, Frederick Caverhill Jones, Charles Edward Kingdon Jones, Francis Harold Ledford, Herbert Daniel McDonald, Reay Mackay, Frank Partridge McKenzie, Clarence Lemuel Mills, Thomas Victor Nickson, Reginald Fawcett Peacock, Francis Skinner, Hugh Mariner Teed, Daniel Lionel Ced, John Webb.

In St. David's church not only the fallong of the church was also commemorated. The special preacher at both services was Rev. Prof. J. W. Falconer, D. D., of the Presbyterian College, Halifa. At the morning service when Holy Communion was celebrated, he chose as the subject of his address Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me, and in the evening speaking first regarding the place of the church and the nation, he went on to cheer and encourage the congregation in their future work. The Rev. Prof. Falconer is a very eloquent preacher and his addresses were listened to with keen interest and pleasure by an etremely large number. The music was excellent, the special feature being the quartette at the morning service. The King of Love My Shepherd Is, by Sticker, and the solo Thou Art With Me, and anthem Praise Ye the Lord, in the evening.
