THE SUN LIEU SUIT

The suit of Steadman against the Sun Publishing Company, the trial of which was commenced today at Fredericton...

The case is of great interest not only to the newspapers, but to the public at large.

The plaintiff in the judge of the county court for York and Queens, and also vice of the Dominion electoral list...

The latter county, the defendant, as every one knows, is a Conservative newspaper published in St. John.

The plaintiff in the case is the Sun in which Judge Steadman, in his capacity as revising officer for Queens...

It is a well known fact that the Sun is accused of partiality and unfair conduct, and of having through his own acts and those of his associates...

Babbitt, made up an electoral list from which the names of many Conservatives qualified to vote were omitted.

The names of many Grits who had not the proper qualifications were placed there, and the names of many who had them were omitted.

It is to be established, which the defendant claims to be able to do, we have no hesitation in saying that not only from his position as revising officer for Queens...

but also as an office judge for the County Court. The result of having 40 electoral lists of a county made up for partisan purposes...

is a scandal of having a man capable of such partial conduct acting in the capacity of judge of the County Court.

In this case Judge Steadman may have been grievously wronged but certainly his manner of conducting the trial has not been called into question.
