

give sufficient consideration to the length of time this accused was in custody awaiting trial when awarding sentence, and whether or not any remission of the sentence should be granted is a matter for your consideration in view of the foregoing.

4. The proceedings are returned herewith in order that the foregoing observations may be brought to the attention of the officers concerned. When they have served your purpose, may they please be returned to this office.

Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

WMS/hb