church, St. John, April 4, 1905:

Your committee on Baptist Union respectfully present the following as Maritime Provinces, and that in any their report for the year 1904-1905 : The convention at its last meeting union the same designation be em-held in Truro, August, 1904, amended the basis of union as presented by ince of New Brunswick, where this your committee of 1903-4, dropping out section 11 and changing the reading of izations heretofore in existence, that a Sec, 16 and its amended form, unani- general body be known as the United mously adopting the basis of union. (See Baptist Year Book, p. 22).

The committee on union was appointed with full power to add to their such legislation as will best serve the number and to take all such steps as will consummate the union. (See Year Book, p. 22). The plan of organization (See Year Book, p. 26): "Resolved, that the convention regard with favor the plan of organization submitted by the joint nittee on union with F. B." On return from convention your committee saw there was nothing more to do until after the meeting of F. B. conference, since there had been changes made in the basis of union by our convention, and this basis as amended must be considered again by that conference. Two members of your mittee attended the sessions of the F. B. conference, were cordially welcomed, listened with much interest to discussion on union, and with special attention to changes made in the basis by out convention. Were accorded the privilege of speaking in ben and witnessed when the
