Sept. 19.—One of the most brilliant society events which has ever taken place in Maryville, was celebrated last evening in the Maryville Methodist church, when at 7.30 o'clock Miss Anna Mande Foster, daughter of Mr. G. W. Foster, of Maryville, was united in marriage to Mr. George Abraham Burbank of Pittfield Mass. The church was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, while ribbons entwined with similar hangings garlands from the pillars. Twelve little girls dressed in white, strewed the bridal path with flowers and divided off the aisle of the church with white ribbons. As the bride party entered the church, proceeded up the aisle by the little maid of honor, the organ pealed forth a wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was handsomely attired in ivory duchesse satin with trimmings of chiffon and pearls, bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bride wore a magnificent set of brooch set with sixty-four diamonds, the gift of the groom. She was attended by Miss Clara Milliken, a bridesmaid, who was prettily attired in white organdie over pink silk, with lace applique trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The little maid of honor was Miss Bessie Robinson, niece of the bride; she was daintily dressed in pink silk with velvet heavy ribbons, and carried a beautiful basket of pink roses.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Brewer, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Lawson. The groom had the support of Mr. F. W. Smith, brother of the bride. Mr. Frank I. Robinson, Mr. Fred Murray and Mr. MacPherson were ushers.

After the ceremony the bride party and guests drove to the home of the bride's father, where a reception was held from eight till ten. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns, the Union Jack and stars and stripes prettily entwined, covered every available space of wall in the entrance hall and double parlors, and made a very effective decoration. Winter's orchestra was present and added much to the enjoyment of the evening. A very dainty collation was served soon after nine o'clock. The newly wedded pair drove to the city last evening and remained at the "Quebec," taking the early morning train for Boston.

The bride's going gown was of fawn broadcloth over a lining of turquoise blue silk, with white applique insertion embroidered in chevron and velvet. She wore a hat of brown velvet with emerald blue velvet and chiffon and a beautiful breast feather. The wedding journey will include a visit to the Pacific Coast and they will be absent several months. The bride's presents were costly and beautiful. The groom's present to his bride was a sunburst pin set in sixty-four diamonds, the bride's maid gave a pearl sunburst with diamond centre and to the little maid of honor a diamond ring. To the groomsmen a diamond pin. The bride's present to the groom was a watch chain with a head and diamond eyes, representing the order of the eiks and Oddfellows.
