Starts Attack on Pastor, But Organist Drowns Her Tirade

New York, April 13.—Jane Est, a young woman sympathizer with the doctrine of the Industrial Workers of the World, yesterday at the morning service of the Madison Square Presbyterian church interrupted the service and was arrested. Rising from a seat which she had pre-empted in the pew of a parishioner, in the gallery just over the pulpit, she started an attack on the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, the pastor. "I want to call your attention to an article in this paper," the young woman said. "This church," she added, "has a minister who repudiates Christ."

MUSIC TEACHERS FORM ASSOCIATION

Canadian Music Teachers' Association Formed — Was Only Profession Not Organized.

London, Ont., April 13.—The Canadian Music Teachers' Association came into being tonight as a result of representations made at the convention of Western Ontario musicians in the London Conservatory of Music. Prof. Norman of Brampton pointed out that there were 30,000 students of music in Ontario alone, and that, in spite of almost universal interest of this large number in the study of music, there was the only profession which was not organized. He urged that the formation of an organization would protect the public from people teaching music without proper qualifications.

NOT IN FAVOR OF GOING AHEAD WITH GEORGIAN BAY CANAL PROJECT YET

Quebec, April 13.—In answer to a letter from Mr. Forward, secretary of the Canadian Federation of Boards of Trade, at Ottawa, in which he requests the Quebec board to be represented at an interview to be held at Ottawa with the Dominion government on Wednesday for the purpose of urging the immediate construction of the Georgian Bay Canal, the local chamber regrets that it cannot agree with Mr. Forward's views and considers the time is not opportune for building the canal. It is of the opinion that before undertaking so stupendous a task it would be wise for the government of Canada to wait and see what the result in the cheapening of freight rates and its improving transportation from the east and west will be brought about by the two new transcontinental railways, the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern, both of which will be completed this year.

JESS WILLARD KNOCKS OUT DAN DALY

Buffalo, April 13.—Jess Willard of Kansas knocked out Dan Daly of Newcastle, Pa., in the ninth round of a six-round match here tonight. Willard weighed 236 pounds and Daly 207.

ROYALTY AFFILIATES ACTIVELY WITH THE ATHLETIC MOVEMENT

The Shamrock IV, of composite build—that is, metal frame with a wood skin, in this respect she differs from the three preceding Shamrocks, which were of aluminum, bronze and steel respectively. Mr. Nicholson, explaining his reasons for deciding upon the wood skin, said that in the first place metal plates would be so thin that there would be great difficulty in getting the rivets to hold, as their heads have to be countersunk flush to give a perfectly smooth surface. Then Mr. Nicholson believes that the lines of the vessel will be more truly preserved with the wood skin than with metal plating, as the thin metal plates are apt to buckle between the frames. Then, again, there is more resistance in wood, which is a point to be considered in a racing yacht. When a metal-hulled vessel strains, it means the loosening of some of her fastenings, but this is not necessarily the case when wood is used. It is remembered that in the Shamrock II, the loosening of the rivets was a constant source of trouble.
