DARING EXPLOIT OF CANADIAN
AVIATOR

Flew from French Line to Brussels and Bombed Zapplin Sheds.

WAS FORCED TO FLY
 ABOVE THE CLOUDS

Made Trip Alone and Defied Rain of Bullets from German Anti-Aircraft Guns as He Dropped Bombs.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—A thrilling story of the wonderful exploit of a young Canadian aviator, Lieut. Mulloch of Peterborough, who flew to Brussels and did damage to German Zeppelin sheds and aerodrome quarters there is told by Major McKelvey Bell in a letter received here. He says:

"I saw one of the Canadian flying men—Lieut. Mulloch, of Peterboro, who is attached to the naval flying corps. He had just come back from a flight to Brussels. He started off in a mist and rain and flew over a mile high above the clouds and he said that every time he came down a little to see where he was the Germans opened fire on him and fired so accurately that he had great difficulty in dodging the shells. After he had been travelling nearly an hour and a half, he came down through the clouds and below him was a great beautiful city, the most beautiful city he ever saw, with wide streets and splendid buildings.
 He knew where the Germans had their aerodromes and he made direct for one of them. It was a large building painted in green and red and yellow so that from a height it looked like the ground. He swooped down towards it and the Germans opened fire on it and their guns so that the shells burst all around him. Some of the shells were of a new type which sent thousands of little balls of fire at him.
 He thinks with the idea of setting his aerodrome on fire.

Defied Hail of German Anti-Aircraft Bullets.

He sailed through them all and dropped a bomb on the building, then made another circle and dropped another one and then another, and all the time bullets were passing him.
 One bullet went through the machine but did not hit him. Then he threw out more bombs and turned for home.
 The Zeppelin shed was on fire by this time. The rain was driving so hard that every time he put his head out to see where he was it cut his face and he could not see where he was going. Then again he had only enough gasoline left to carry him straight home and if he made a mistake he would have descended into the German lines. He said that every time he came down a little to see where he was he was met with showers of shrapnel and it was very dangerous to come down closer than a mile from the earth. After a long while he came down a little and there was no firing so he concluded that he must be over France. He turned towards the coast and when he got there found himself almost home.

"Lieut. Mulloch left Ottawa as a Sergeant-Major in the 1st Artillery Brigade with Lieut. Col. Morrison. There are a lot of Canadian boys in the flying corps and they are very brave and daring and withal are just as modest over their exploits as the Englishmen."

THREE BATTALIONS SECURED
DURING THE LAST TWO MONTHS

Captain L. P. D. Tilley gives out figures which show what each section of the Maritime Provinces is doing.

Special to The Standard.

In the last two months sufficient men have been recruited in the maritime provinces to fill three battalions.
 The total given in the official returns, announced yesterday by Captain L. P.
 D. Tilley, recruiting officer for New Brunswick, is 3,331. Of this number Nova Scotia has contributed 1,761, New Brunswick, 1,348, and Prince Edward Island 222.

While these figures are generally accurate sometimes men go to regimental headquarters and sign on and their names do not always come through to the chief recruiting officer.

Nova Scotia took the lead for this period with 1,117 men recruited from September 4 to October 6, while New Brunswick's showing was 667. During the most period, October 6 to November 3, Nova Scotia raised 644 men, but was surpassed by New Brunswick's contribution of 681 men.

The way in which the men of St.
 John have responded to the call is shown in gratifying light by the comparison with the showing made by Halifax during these two months. In September 294 men were enlisted in Halifax and in October 104, a total of 398. During the same periods St.
 John men enlisted to the number of 305 in September and 422 in October, a total of 727, or almost twice the number in the sister city. The detailed figures, by recruiting districts, are as follows:

Nova Scotia.
Sept. 4 to Oct. 6	1,117
Halifax	294
Lunenburg	38
Queens	13
Shelburne	27

WOODSTOCK PASTOR
GETS PURSE OF GOLD

Presentation to Rev. F. J.
 McMurray on eve of his departure for St. John.

Special to The Standard.

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 8.—Rev. F.
 J. McMurray will leave tomorrow for his new pastorate in St. John.

The reverend gentleman preached his farewell sermon at both masses in St. Gertrude's church on Sunday, and also addressed the Sunday school, presenting the scholars each with a handsome prayer book.

The members of the congregation were deeply affected at his farewell words as he told them of the warm feelings he held for them. To his non-Catholic friends, many of whom were present at the late mass, he said that during his thirteen years' stay in this town he had met nothing but kindness at their hands and he would always remember them.

This evening the congregation tendered Rev. Father McMurray a reception in St. Gertrude's Hall, at which addresses were read and presentations made to the priest and his brother, John McMurray.

The address to the pastor was read by John P. Maloney at the conclusion of which Miss Tassie Power presented Rev. Father McMurray with a purse containing $331 in gold. The pastor replied and was followed by Rev. M.
 T. Murphy.

Coun. Joseph Power made the presentation speech to John McMurray of a travelling bag. Owen Kelly, James W. Gallagher and the ladies of the Altar Society, and the League of the Sacred Heart, were the committee in charge of the presentation and the lunch that followed. The whole function ended by singing the national anthem.

This afternoon Edward Derrick of Canterbury, N. B., who recently returned from the front in the Corsican, was in town. When the war broke out Mr. Derrick was in North Bay, Ont., where he enlisted and went across the water from Valcartier with the first Canadians. He was gassed at the engagement at Ypres, recovered and was hit in the legs by shrapnel at La Bassée. He was sufficiently cured to be sent home, although probably unfit for future service. He is quite lame, but can walk without the help of a cane.

Ex-parte F. E. Williams, Hon. J.
 B. M. Baxter, Attorney-General, to show cause against an order nisi for mandamus.

The same. The like.

The King vs. Common Council of the City of St. John ex parte F. E. Williams, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Attorney-General to show cause against an order nisi to quash a by-law.

Appeal paper, County Court.

McArthur vs. Philips, Hon. J. B. M.
 Baxter, Attorney-General, for defendant to support appeal from Kings County Court.

King's Bench Division: LeBlanc vs.
 Lutz et al. Mr. G. W. Fowler, K. C., for defendants to move to set aside verdict for plaintiff and to enter verdict for defendant or for a new trial or for reduction of damages.
