World's Champions Defeated Newman Hall Aggregation in Fast Strenuous Game

By a Score of 9 to 4 the Local Boys Win Second Game Against Heavy and Speccy Opponents.

HILLMAN STARRED FOR CHAMPS.

Nine to four was the score, and shows. After the bumps Shadow the same just about tells the tale.
It was strenuous hockey all the way, and the fans were treated to a rare exhibition of the premier winter sport.

About three thousand suffered the miserable accommodation of the arena, and got cross eyed and stiff necked trying to watch the play from behind innumerable posts and girders. However, with all they suffered they felt recompensed by the outcome.

The better team won, and the victory was well earned. The New-mans played good hockey, and had the ice been keen the result might have been different, and when the 25th come around and the teams meet again on Toronto ice the writer is of the opinion Jerry's Six will just about, give the Champions the toughest battle of their career.

The visitors had it all over Hill-man's Six in averdupois, and they didn't forget to use their tonage on each and every occasion that came their way. In the opening period the Toronto defense, Jerry and Cyclone Woodcock, used body checking to great advantage, and succeeded in considerably slowing up Parkes and Hiller. The former was grazed a couple of times, and although he came up smiling his work lacked the pep he usually from Parkes in the corner. Following this tally there was a halt in the play for six or seven minutes until Parkes indulged in one of his lone end to end rushes. He cleared the defense, and landed on Col-lett's pads, but was up in time to take the rebound and bash it in before Collett knew what was happening.

A few seconds later Shadow and Merriek, who was replacing Kargis, went down together and flashing inside the defense the former netted again.

A minute later Quain shot from outside, and Hainsworth who tried to handle the pellet with his glove instead of his body, missed his guess and the visitors had their first.

Just before the bell rang Hiller and Quain got into a mix which drew a penalty for the Mouse.

SECOND PERIOD.
The Newmans took full advantage of Hiller's absence when the frame opened and attacked like the Canadians at Vimy Ridge. Their efforts were rewarded in 1.35 minutes when Sullivan on a nice shot from the wing bulged the net. When Hiller returned the tide also turned, but Collett was at home to everything the Kitchener boys sent his way.

Jerry, finally was caught tripping Hiller and was waved to the penalty box. His misdeed cost his team two goals, for during his absence Hiller and Hillman each slipped one over; the former in 8.10 off a pass from Snooser, and the latter in 8.40 from a pretty pass from Masters who was relieving Parkes.

When Jerry came back his team took on a new lease of life and Dopp and Sullivan combined for a goal the latter beating "Honey-boy" for the visitors second in 9.
30 minutes.

Even play featured the next five minutes until big Cyclone Woodcock on an irritable lone end to end rush broke down all opposition and tallied the visitors fourth. It was a magnificent rush, and won the plaudits of the fans. Three minutes later Hillman on the cleaver play of the night slipped through the defense and registered the final goal of the frame.

Third Period.
The first six minutes was productive of good clean even hockey, neither team having the advantage. Finally Kargis, who was playing his usual brilliant game, broke away, and dazzling the opposition, reached the defense before handing the pellet to Hiller who registered in the top corner before Collett was aware the exchange had been made. Even play followed, neither team being able to get inside for a shot. Hiller again became a spectator for amusing the fans by tripping Jerry. While Mouse was enjoying a forced vacation the Newmans did their darndest but Kargis and Snooser were there with the goods and forced the visitors to use their long range artillery. With less than one minute to go Hiller on a lone rush fooled everything before him on trick plays and netted the final goal in 19.25.
Kitchener:

Hainsworth, Goal; Kargis, R. Def.
Trushinski, L. Def.; Hiller, Centre; Parkes, R. Def.; Hillman, L. Def.;

Referee Lawson Whitehead.

Summary.
Hillman 7.15, Hillman 7.15, Parkes 7.40, Parkes 15, Quain 16, Sullivan 21.35, Hiller 28.10, Hillman 28.40, Sullivan 29.30, Woodcock 34-10, Hillman 37.14, Hiller 49.20, Hiller 59.25.

Penalties.
Woodcock 4 min., Hiller 4 min., LaFlamme 2, Trushinski 2, Dopp 2.

SKATE JUICE

by Dan

The Newman Halls and their friends were the guests of The Knights of Columbus after the game last evening.
The visitors were right royally entertained to a banquet at Gettas and Gettas cafe after which they visited the K of C club rooms where a sing-song and smoker was held.

The fact that Gettas and Gettas prepared the banquet is all that need be said as to its excellence. It was superb, and full justice was done to the many excellent and tasty dishes that would have done credit to the table of His Majesty the King.

During the game both teams used their size frequently and as the quality of the spare men was about even neither team had an advantage in the respect.

Sullivan who was subbing for the visitors was the most effective man on the team, and netted two of the visitors four goals.

Old Jerry is a Past Master Grand. when it comes to the rough stuff But being a good sport he can take a bump as well as give one.

Cyclone Woodcock was effective as a defense man. He also is strong on sticks, and knows how to use his weight to advantage.

Doc Merriek was used quite frequently on the defensive last night and made an excellent showing.
He has the poke check down to a science and always was effective.

Snooser demonstrated that he not only is one of the best defensive players in the game, but also that he is an offensive player of unusual ability.
Last night he gave an exhibition of stock handling that was a revelation.

Kargis, the old war horse, who has no peer in a stick and puck or defensive man in O.H.A. was there with bells on.

Seen or Heard On And Off The Ice

JUNIORS AT GALT TONIGHT.

Players and fans will leave tonight on the 6.05 car for Galt, this will ensure being in plenty of time taking into consideration the rough weather. The line up will be the same as Mondays game.

A special car from Galt after the game will be at the disposal of Kitchener fans.

A. Scheigel of Preston will referee the game.

Nerlich will not play this season, private reasons preventing him from doing so.

Hogan and O'Rourke are back in the City and will most likely try out in the coming week.

The score by periods will be made known at the Imperial Billiard Room this evening.

With to-night's game, Preston on Saturday and Galt here on Monday will make a busy week end for the juniors.

Broomfield of Galt will referee the game at Preston on Saturday.

Providing the numbers are on hand, to-night will see them in vogue for the first time, this idea cannot start too soon.
