THE WEEKLY MARKET

In spite of the fact that the market was not thoroughly advertised for this morning the usual large crowd was in attendance both of farmers and town people. There was the usual supply of produce offered prices being about the same as last Saturday. Butter sold at 50 cents per lb while eggs brought 45 cents per dozen. Apples at 30 cents per basket and oranges at 25 cents per bunch and all other garden stuff sold at regular prices. About the only complaint the farmers had to make was too much rain which has held back seeding operations considerably.

CHIEF KARGES ON INSPECTION TOUR

Chief Karges of the Fire Dept is making his usual inspection tour this week and so far with the exception of a few cases everything is satisfactory and the merchants willing to take the advice of the chief and improve the colors and discard all material liable to cause a fire. Chief Karges of the public and control school were visited and fire drills held and the response to the alarm by the pupils was indeed most gratifying to the chief. At the Central School the new fire escapes were given a thorough test the upper rooms being emptied in less than 2 minutes which is remarkably good considering the escapes have been only lately installed. At the Alexander School the pupils were all out in 1 minute while at the St. Mary's school the rooms were cleared in 55 seconds. Chief Karges will conclude his inspection this week and a full report will be submitted to the Fire Committee.

A COMMENDABLE REQUEST MADE

To the Public School Board. At the meeting of the Public School Board last evening, attention to the necessity of doing something to provide for the children during the summer months when there is no school was drawn by Rev. W. C. Boese, who spoke as a committee for the Children's Aid Society. Rev. Boese pointed out it was necessary to do something in order to provide the children with wholesome pleasures and keep them out of mischief. He would like to see ample playgrounds provided. It was an undeniable fact that some moving pictures were detrimental to the children and something along the line of playgrounds should be provided.

The members of the Board were well impressed with the request and will consider the request of Mr. E. D. Lang, the chairman pointed out that the Board several years ago undertook such a scheme but the was never completed.

There had been little labor trouble here. No signs of revolutionary suggestions as far as he knew. There might be a few individuals or groups but that was all.

Mr. Hughes concluded his evidence by stating there should be a minimum wage and control of the high cost of living, the governmental operation of public utilities with the gradual overtake of the nationalization of other lines of industries, as occasion arose. He favored the establishment of a joint Council of men and manufacturers to try to adjust differences.

No Serious Conditions

Mayor Gross took the stand shortly before adjournment. He stated there was no unemployment. There was little unrest, and what there was was only a mental state and not fundamental.

Regarding his own shop the minimum wage was $1.50 for boys and girls and the men were paid from $3 up. The maximum was $8.

The hours were 50 a week. Some wished to work 55 and were doing so.

Didn't Have Well Day In Five Years

Toronto Man Gains 6 Pounds—Now Feels Like Has New Lease on Life

If there is a man in Toronto who believes in Tanlac, that man is Harvey Hamilton, who resides at 457 Church street and is employed as a fuse maker by the Copeland-Chatterton Co. 1303 Queen Street. Mr. Hamilton has lived in Toronto eighteen years and is well-known.

"Five years ago I had a severe attack of pneumonia," said Mr. Hamilton recently in conversation with the Tanlac representative, "which reached into a general run-down condition, and I have not been like myself since. I lost weight until I was almost a shadow. I felt like I didn't have hardly any life or energy about me and was so nervous I couldn't sleep over four or five hours a night. I lost my appetite and often didn't go to the table at meal time, for I knew if I did I couldn't eat a thing. The little I managed to eat did more harm than good and soured on my stomach, causing a stuffed-up, uncomfortable feeling. I had pains in my stomach and sides and often had dizzy spells. I got played out. I just had to lay down my tool and quit work. Here often I felt so weak and yes, I went five long years without enjoying a well day and you can imagine how blue and despondent I was. This is the very shape I was in when I read in one of the Toronto papers the statement of a man who described his trouble just like mine. He said he had been relieved by Tanlac and I lost no time in getting a bottle.

"It was about the best move I ever made in my life, for I now feel like I have taken a new lease on life. I have a good appetite, you ever saw and eat three square meals every day, enjoy over mouthful and have no disagreeable feelings afterwards. I have actually gained six pounds in weight and feel like my strength has been increased a hundred per cent. Gas has quit forming on my stomach and all the pains have disappeared. I'm not nervous and I sleep like a log at night. I simply feel better all over and my work is no longer a burden, but is a pleasure to me. My friends all know the shape I was in before I took Tanlac and now see my remarkable improvement. I know of four or five people who have begun taking Tanlac since seeing the good it did me. If anybody doubts this statement all they have to do is to ask and I'll tell them just what I told you and that I consider it the finest medicine on earth.

Tanlac the medicine that accomplished such remarkable results in Mr. Hamilton's case is being sold in Kitchener by E.C. Ritz & Co., in Galt by R.W. Weidman in Hespeler by J. H. Phin, in New Hamburg by W.H. Bouillon in Milbank by R.B. Hamilton, in West Montrose by A.E. Richter & Co., in Preston by H.L. Erick, in Waterloo by A.B. Learn, in Doon by L.C. Bullock.

Mr. Hamilton is a very genial gentleman, has in his possession many newspaper criticisms of the show and they all speak in glowing terms of the excellent entertainment given and the honorable methods employed by the show management in doing business with the public—no gambling or short change artists being allowed among its employees.

Our people will undoubtedly turn out en masse if the weather is at all favorable.

THE INDUSTRIAL

Replying to questions as to whether he was a cabinet maker, he said no, nor when any were present he replied no.

Judge Mathers: "Until some of these come and give other evidence, we are bound to accept the statement made by Mr. Weber. Wouldn't it be well to have some of them here this afternoon. Couldn't you get them here?"

"I suppose I could," Mr. Hughes said. "One difficulty is that they don't want to lose any time. Some may be afraid of coming out here," he added when pressed that he, in the carpentry trade, had never met with such discrimination. Nor did he just know of any such cases.

"What about unrest?" Judge Mathers asked.

"Oh, there is unrest here, while it may not be expressed there is unrest," Mr. Hughes said. "I attribute this to low wages and the consequent fear of poverty. It's the high cost of living," he remarked. Wages had not been doubled to meet the high cost of living.

"The men are willing to cooperate with a tariff tariff," he said, "but they are not willing to recognize their union. We recognize the difficulties of the manufacturer and the competitive basis he must work on," Mr. Hughes said. The Trades and Labor people objected to the custom of factories sending some articles to homes to be finished or worked on by the women. "It is like sweatshop work."

Mr. Hughes could not recall any strikes here with the exception of two or three little incidents.

Mr. Moore: "Didn't three delegates go to the annual convention to protest against the Canadian Consolidated company which refused, it was alleged, to recognize the union last year?"

"I don't know about that," Mr. Hughes concluded his evidence by stating there should be a minimum wage and control of the high cost of living, the governmental operation of public utilities with the gradual overtake of the nationalization of other lines of industries, as occasion arose. He favored the establishment of a joint Council of men and manufacturers to try to adjust differences.
