OWE GRATITUDE TO GOVERNMENT

THAT IS VERDICT OF RIGHT REV. P. J. HAYES, D. D., MILITARY BISHOP

Chicago New World The Right Rev. Patrick J. Haves D. D., Bishop Ordinary of the United States Army and Navy chaplains at home and abroad, stopped at Chicago while visiting the army and navy posts in the vicinity.

Words of comfort for parents of American soldiers and sailors and the highest praise for the conditions found in all training camps of both the military and naval forces in the United States were voiced in an in-terview here by Bishop Hayes.

"There are at present more than five hundred Catholic priests serving as chaplains in the United States Army and Navy, and about one-third of the boys enrolled to fight for the Stars and Stripes are of the Catholic faith," said Bishop Hayes. "With the inspection in this country completed I expect to go overseas in the near future.

"The first thought that comes to me after visiting more than fifty centers is that of admiration for what the Federal Government has accomplished both in the army and navy in regard to the selection of sites, and the upbuilding of the training camps and stations for soldiers and sailors.

the Government for lack of preparedness when war was declared, but after you visit the various places throughout this land the thought strikes you that Washington did not show its hand, but was better prepared and preparing than we knew.
"With reference to the care of our men I came to the firm conclusion that no army of men, especially on such a stupendous scale, has ever been better provided for in regard to creature comforts. Our boys are well housed, well fed and well

Another striking thing is the small amount of siokness of a serious nature among our boys.

Recreational necessities have not been overlooked by the Government. Everything of a legitimate nature that might appeal to the boys has been provided. The Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A., the Jewish Welfare board, as well as other agencies, all combine to give the soldiers and sailors those lighter moments that throw the balance safely from the extreme tension of military life to the normal life, which is home, and which the boys are not allowed to forget.

mothers of America can never be too grateful to the President of the United States, to the Secretary of War and to the Secretary of the Navy for the solicitude, the care and the protection they have thrown around the soldier and sailor boy, not only in the camps under their control, but even outside.

The moral condition of the camps and stations is due both to the Fosdick commission work and to the organization known as the military police. It would not be fair to have the people imagine that the military authorities were not in perfect accord with the keeping of the conditions in

The clergymen in many towns and cities which I have visited have told me that these places are to-day better and cleaner since the soldiers Those left to and sailors have come.

"The danger to the boy is not in the camp or station or anywhere Rev. Sister M. Beatrice, Superior St. Federal authority reaches out over them. If the American boy was as well protected in civil life as he is in the camps and stations against the visions dangers previously in large and three hyethers lesson F. Convent, Trenton; and three hyethers lesso vicious dangers pertaining in large and three brothers Joseph F. of Sault cities, it would be better for the Ste. Marie; Thomas L., and John of future of America."

UNDERVALUING THE MASS

"The best manner and method of saving one's time," said Frederick is to sacrifice a half hour daily for the holy Mass." We wonder what he would think of those Catho-lic young men who find they they cannot spare a half hour on Sunday for this purpose. Realizing that they must go to Mass, they select the last Mass, usually a "short Mass," and they shorten the time still more by coming in late, and leaving when the priest begins the last gospel. To say and young women also, spring to their feet and hasten from the Church while the priest is still on the alter.

These young people cannot plead ignorance. Many of them are parish school graduates, and in their school days were carefully drilled in reverent attendance at the Holy sacrifice. It is another kind of ignorance that must be responsible for their conduct. The ignorance that comes of over-weening self-importance and selfishness. Possibly these offenders against reverence and courtess imagine that others are impressed by their hurried occupied France to which correexit, indicating that time is so precious. We have seen young men whose usual occupation before the work and the sent through the medium of Thos. Cook & Son, 530 St. Catherine whose usual occupation before the Montreal and St. Catherine St., West, Montreal. Application of the Church of the Tomb should be made to Thos. of the State waited, and remained in prayer fifteen minutes after the remonies were over.

It may be taken for granted that the Catholic who cannot give a half hour of his time on Sunday to hear-ing Mass, spends his days to little purefit of the Mass by failing to hear it fully and reverently.—Sacred Heart Review.

OBITUARY

MRS. CALLAGHAN Buffalo Union and Times

On the 1st inst. the angel of death entered the home of Jane Kingston, widow of the late Bernard Callaghan, and called her to her eternal reward. Mrs. Callaghan was much beloved by her friends and neighbors alike for many estimable qualities of mind and heart and always had a cheerful smile for all with whom she came in contact. Her death leaves a sad vacancy in the home where the family mourn the loss of a loving mother. Although death came somewhat suddenly, it was not unexpected. as deceased had been suffering from leakage of the heart for some years. During her recent illness she was attended by the devoted Oblate Fathers of Holy Angels Church and, having received the rites and consol-ations of the Church from Father iters and sallors.

There has been some criticism of Government for lack of prepared.

THE PEACE RIVER DISTRICT

The Peace River District has been for many years the subject of much interest and speculation. Alluring ing Mass, spends his days to little parpose. No wastrel brings upon himself greater loss and injury than the self greater loss and injury than the climate and varying scenery, have charm of romance which distance and uncertainty blended with glowing promises. Now, however, the land so long famed by legend and mystery is being proved a reality, modern transportation having, so to speak, brought it to our very doors. A journey from Edmonton to the town of Peace River for instance, which five years ago consumed nearly two weeks of toil and hardship may now be made in less than twentyfour hours, in comfort at all times of the year, trains to this latest settlers' mecca which is nearly 1,000 miles north of the international boundary line, carrying both sleeping and dining car accommodation

The department of the Interior, through its Natural Resources Intelligence Branch has prepared and is distributing a new illustrated report on the district based on invest igations made by an official of that Branch during the season of 1917. The publication contains interesting information with regard to climate, soil, agriculture, minerals, game, water powers, transportation, and education. A map of the district water showing general topography also accompanies the report.

The recent reservation in the interests of soldier settlement of available Dominion lands has also necessitated the preparation of a map which would show the area in Northern Alberta that had been reserved for such purposes. 'publication is now available distribution and should prove of con-siderable value to the returned sol-dier who is considering the advisability of settlement in the Peace River Country, likewise to the prospective homesteader as it shows the area within which homesteads may be procured, also the total number of juarter-sections that are still avail able in each township within reasonable distance of a railway. A copy of the report or map or both may be procured free of charge upon application to the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch of the Department of the Interior. Ottawa

RUSHING NEW SUBWAY FOR WESTERN FAIR

SEPTEMBER 6TH TO 14TH, 1918

Last year the Board of Directors Western Fair, London, Ont., found themselves up against the problem of providing accommodation for hundreds of automobiles which were driven in from the surround-ing country. This year they are fully alive to the situation and are building, at great expense, a subway under the track, which will enable them to park all cars inside the speed ring.
The entrance will be at the corner of Egerton and Dundas Street, where all accommodations, such as a check room for wraps, etc., will be provided. A turnstile will be placed so that occupants of cars can enter the grounds at this point and the driver. grounds. A charge of $1.00 will be made for driver and car, which includes parking as long as the owner wishes to leave it. This is an increase of only twenty five cents over last year, and it is felt that no objections will be made when the accommodation given is taken into
