The more a man is made to do, the more he is. able to do, and the more he desires to do. Torn not the beggar from your doors, for even a beggar's blessing ascends to God.
Said a man who tumbled out of a third-storey window: "When I first fell I, was confused; but when I struck the pavement I knew where I was." There is threefold death in the slanderer's tongue; it kills him who slanders, him who is slandered, and him who receives the slander.

A man in Rhode Island is reported to have been sent to jail for ten days for sleeping in church.
Nothing was done to the clergyman.

Many run about after happiness, like an absentminded man hunting for his hat while it is on his head or in his hand.

Insults are like counterfeit money; we cannot hinder their being offered, but we are not compelled to take them.

The point of honor can often be made to produce, by means of vanity, as many good deeds as

The New York Sun knows a general in the army who has'nt been clear of debt for thirty-seven years. A Montreal newspaper publisher says he knows lots of men that would make good generals.

There is a rule which, we think, would make all men constant, whatever their natural bias; and men constant, man services, as in great things, never that is, in trifling services, as in great things, never willingly to disappoint a just and reasonable ex-

A gentleman passing through one of our public offices was affronted by some clerks, and was advised to complain to the principal, which he did thus—"I have been abused here by some of the mscals of this place, and I came to acquaint you of it, as I understand you are the principal."

"What are you in jail for?" asked a prison visitor of a negro in New Orleans gaol. "For bor'win of a negro in the word on't put men in gaol for money!" "Why they don't put men in gaol for herrowing money!" "Yes, but you see, I had to borrowing money !" knock the man down t'ree or four times afore he'd lend it to me."

Lord Bacon says: "The virtue of prosperity is temperance. The virtue of adversity is fortitude, which in morals is most heroic virtue."—Again, Prosperity is not without many fears and distastes, and adversity is not without comfort and hope. For prosperity doth best discover vice, but adversity doth best discover virtue."

A Massachusetts paper tells of a colored woman who had lately been converted, but was so unfor-tunate as to fly into a passion over the misdoings of one of her neighbors' youngsters. Her mistress remarked upon the impropriety of such conduct in the case of one about to join the church, and received this frank response : "I have 'sperienced religion, and I'se gwine to jine de church but Miss I'll scald that nigger fust!"

THE Detroit Post thinks Dean Stanley, in officiating at the marriage of Professor Tyndall, should have asked the bride if she would take that anthropoid to be her co-ordinate, to love with her nerve centres and to cherish with her whole cellular tissue, until a final molecular disturbance should resolve his organism into its primitive atoms. But he didn't, and if he had she would probably have

A WRONG CUSTOM CORRECTED.

It is quite generally the custom to take strong liver stimulants for the cure of liver complaint, and both the mineral and vegetable kingdoms have been diligently searched to procure the most drastic and poisonous purgatives, in order to produce a nowerful effect upon the liver, and arouse the lagging and enfeebled organ. This system of treatment is on the same principle as that giving a weak and dibilitated man large portions of brandy to enable him to do a certain amount of work. When the stimulant is withheld, the organ, like the system, gradually relapses into a more torpid or sluggish and weakening condition than before. What then is wanted? Medicines which, while they cause the bile to slow freely from the liver, as will not overwork and thus dibilitate it, but will, when their use is discontinued, leave the liver strengthened, and healthy. Such remedies are found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets. A CURE OF LIVER DISEASE.

Rusk, Texas, May 10th, 1873.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Bear Sir-My wife last year at this time was confined to her bed with Chronic Liver Disease. I had one of the best doctors to see her, and he gave her up to die, when I came upon some of your medicine. I bought one bottle and commenced giving it. She then weighed 82lbs.; now she weighs 140 lbs., and is robust and hearty. She has taken eight bottles in all, so you see I am an advocate for your Medicines.

WILLIAM MEAZEL.

FROM THE NOTED SCOUT, "BUFFALO BILL! HOLLAND House, Rockford, Ill., April 20th, 1874. -Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.: Sir-I have now taken four bottles of your Medical Discovery in connection with your Pellets, and must say that nothing I have ever taken for my liver has done me as much good. I feel like a new man. Thanks to your wonderful medicine. W. F. CODY, ("Buffalo Bill.")

The effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can be only transitory, whilst men persist in the gratification of vicious and pernicious habits; and— Strength to subdue the passion is the best guarantee of mental vigor, and of becoming a strong and long lived man.

There are very explicit directions on this point accompanying Fellow's Hypophosphites, for, however quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, he must abolish the habit and practices which induced the disease, and which may tend to hopeless irrecovery.
