

or other place within the same, under every obligation, penalty, matter and thing regarding the same, as is and are by the above said Act enjoined and prescribed.

II. And whereas from the wording of the Act passed in the 44th year of the Reign of Geo. 3d. c. 11, intituled, "An Act to confirm certain Marriages therein mentioned," and of another Act passed in the first year of the Reign of His present Majesty, cap. 19, intituled, "An Act to confirm certain Marriages heretofore solemnized in the Inferior District of Gaspé," doubts might be entertained respecting the validity of Marriages within this Province since the passing of the said Act, celebrated by Ministers or Clergymen in communion with the Church of Scotland:—Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all Mariages which have heretofore been or shall hereafter be celebrated by Ministers or Clergymen of or in Communion with the Church of Scotland, have been and shall be held to be legal and valid to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Any thing in the said Act or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
