

Pumpkin Festival is Oct. 23

Erindale United Church will hold its Pumpkin Festival Oct. 23 and members of the community, are welcome — free of charge.

Between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. there will be sales of pottery, silk and cotton batik, leather craft, oil and water color paintings, hooked rugs, copper enamelling and bubble glass. The items will primarily be the art and handicraft of professional artists including representatives of the Mississauga Artists' Workshop and the noted Nook Jackson of Dundas. Throughout the day there will be demonstrations of such crafts as pottery making and rug hooking.

Dried painted floral arrangements prepared by members of the congregation and assembled under the supervision of a well-known horticulturalist, Miss Helen Easterbrook, will also be available. The women of the church will be making home-baked goods for sale in a Bake Shop and candies in the Sweet Tooth Shop.

The culinary talents of the women will again be featured in a sandwich luncheon served after 11 a.m. at a cost of 75 cents per person while the men of the church will take a hand in preparing a hot supper in the evening.

For many months church members have been filling individual shopping bags with sewing, knitting and preserves to be sold during the festival. To these will be added the "Attic Treasures" at the Antique sale.

For the pre-teen group the CGIT will be operating a Junior Shoppers Mart.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald F. McLean.
