October 25th, 1926.

Miss McPherson,
Sec'y. The Hon. Vincent Massey,
Ritz Hotel, London.

Dear Miss McPherson:

At the request of the Right Hon. the Prime Minister Mr Massey has kindly agreed to attend a luncheon to be given by the Imperial College of Tropical Agriculture at the Carlton Hotel on Friday, the 12th of November at 1 P.M.

The Secretary of State for the Dominions and Sir Arthur Shipley, the Chairman, will make brief statements regarding the work and objects of the College with special reference to its bearing on the development of Tropical Agriculture. I am informed that there will be no formal speeches.

I have written the Secretary as per enclosed copy and have also informed the Ceremonial Secretary of the Dominions Office as to the above arrangement.

Yours faithfully,

JRH/B.
Encl.

Secretary.
