

International Perspectives

International Perspectives is published in Canada six times a year by International Perspectives, (95312 Canada Inc.), 302-150 Wellington St., Ottawa, K1P 5A4.

Second Class Mail Registration Number 4929.

Editor and Publisher:
Alex Inglis

Assistant Editor:
Robert Albota

Business Manager:
Ruth Macfarlane

Subscription Rates:

In Canada:

Single issue — $1.75
One year (six issues) — $9
Two years (12 issues) — $17
Three years (18 issues) — $24

Other countries:

Single issue — $2.25
One Year (six issues) — $12
Two years (12 issues) — $22
Three years (18 issues) — $30

Subscription address:

P.O. Box 949,
Station 'B'
Ottawa, Canada
K1P 5P9

International Perspectives is a journal of opinion on world affairs. It advocates no editorial position. The opinions expressed by authors are their own and, unless otherwise stated, are not to be taken as presenting the official views of any organization with which the author is associated.

ISSN 0381-4874

© 1981

Contents

March/April 1981

Special UN Session on Development/Jacques Roy 2

The North-South dialogue:

Global management/Shridath Ramphal 5
People, justice and dignity/Gamini Dissanayaki 10
Africa's underdevelopment/Adebayo Adedeji 15
Latin American perspective/Enrique Iglesias 21
A Western viewpoint/Paul-Marc Henry 26

Book review

U.S.S.R. and Third World/Larry Black 33

In the centre: Information Supplement:

The Canadian Labour Congress and international affairs with a focus on the North-South issue.

Special Feature by the Canadian Labour Congress

At the back:

For the Record: reference material on Canadian foreign relations presented by the Department of External Affairs.