

PREFACE

All paintings, old and modern, mentioned in this catalogue and which are now exhibited at Louis Morency, 183 St. John Street, come from a rich collection, property of Mr. Postmans, Antwerp, Belgium.

It consists of precious works, old and modern, from great masters.

Most of these paintings are richly framed and are of great interest to the amateur and purchaser. The whole collection is for sale at reasonable prices.

Among this collection are found several religious subjects of great value, which would be quite decorative for a church, chapel or even a private house.

This collection is worth seeing, and amateurs should not miss the occasion offered to study the works of different schools, such as Rubens, Raphaël, etc. Originals of Quinten Matsys, Rombouts, Jansens, Van Leemputten, etc., in one word, the works of European masters.

Besides the collection at the Morency Studio can be seen an album of photographs, reproducing paintings of great masters. Such paintings can be bought as well as those that are exposed.

Certificate of authenticity signed by experts accompany these paintings.
