* Which adds to the Statute, as given in the text, six other sections, nn. 10 to 15 inclusive, of which the marginal synopsis is as follows:—

10. Certificate under former acts to be valid, though the Justices were not residents in the country or district in which the married woman resided.
11. Certificate to be valid, though given subsequent to the execution of the deed.
12. Deed executed by married woman jointly with her husband to be a good conveyance notwithstanding errors in certificate indorsed.
13. And notwithstanding the certificate be not in strict conformity to the forms in the said acts.
14. Act not to prejudice titles subsequently acquired &c.
15. Requirements formerly necessary to continue to be so as in future conveyances. 22
