CATARAQUI.

A village containing about three hundred inhabitants, on the Kingston and Napanee Road, in the Township of Kingston, County of Frontenac, three miles from the City of Kingston, with which place it has daily stage communication. It is at the junction of the Perth, Portland, Napanee and Stormont roads. Its chief buildings are the Town Hall, Christ Church, (English), Episcopal Church, Methodist Church and Masonic Hall. The principal places of business are the brick yards and the Cataraqui nurseries. A remarkable feature of the place is the Protestant Cemetery, which contains nearly one hundred acres.
