ADDRESS REV. R. DOUGLAS FRASER,
CONFEDERATION LIFE BUILDING, TORONTO

Gone Home

The little children will never forget the sad days when everyone was mourning for our Queen, the dear old Queen who loved her own children so, and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and whom every child in all the Empire loved.

The best of all was that she loved God and served Him faithfully, and we should think of her not as in the cold dark tomb, but as in the glorious home above.

"The Land We Have Not Seen"

Every morning the red sun
Rises warm and bright,
But the evening cometh on
And the dark cold night.
There's a bright land far away,
Where 'tis never-ending day.

Every spring the sweet young flowers
Open bright and gay;
Till the chilly autumn hours
Wither them away.
There is a land we have not seen,
Where the trees are always green.

Little birds sing songs of praise
All the summer long,
But in colder, shorter days
They forget their song.
There's a place where angels sing
Ceaseless praises to their King.

Christ our Lord is ever near
Those who follow Him;
But we cannot see Him here,
For our eyes are dim.
There is a most happy place
Where men always see His face.

Who shall go to that bright land?
All who do the right;
Holy children there shall stand
In their robes of white.
For that heaven so bright and blest
Is our everlasting rest!
