The Probincial Wesleyan.

guest the Prince was during his stay Island, very kindly answered than address Island, very kindly answered takes addresses for his Royal Highness. The young sailor Prince, who looked well and "jolly," left on Friday, March 1stein the St. George, unidst a crowd of Yours, very truly. JOHN PHILP.

Obituary Motices.

She felt persuaded that it was her exalted end will all parties be satisfied.

privilege to enjoy the perfect love of God which casts out fear and purifies the heart. For this

"Arise, my soul, arise," she assisted in singing it. This was her last song on earth. She remained for a few moments in a peaceful frame of mind, and then, without a struggle or a sigh, she sweetly fell asleen in Jesus

d where scenes of joy or circumstances of bereavement, in the which still exert their influence upon the charac-issues for ter of the community. But all minds turn Prince, towards the coming Conference. Many feel that Friday, they have great interests to be decided there, rowd of Some whose hearts God hath touched are admiring but very orderly spectators, who cheen anxious to know whether the call of the Church ed him as long as they could see him, and not a will correspond with what they regard as the more loyal heart beat in that company than that Holy Spirit's call to go and work in the Lord's Kerner of Work, work, and Mr. Nelles, the President of Vietoria Col.

where they are first to enter upon the undertak-HILP. where they are first to enter upon the undertak-ing. Ministers, too, of various ages, and of noless diversified conditions, are looking forward to re-moval, and are wondering where they and their Ching Holices. And with moval, and are wondering where they and their family, a constitutional requirement. There is not moval, and are wondering where they and their family, a constitutional requirement. There is not moval, and are wondering where they and their family, a constitutional requirement. There is not families are likely next to be sent. And with no less trepidation are the members on many a the oth of April, aged thirty-five years, leaving friends. Miss SARAH FAIRLEY died at Boiestown on the 6th of April, aged thirty-five years, leaving friends. Miss Sarah Fairley are likely next to be sent. And with no less trepidation are the members on many a the members on many a main are dependent for their full develope- in the oth of April, aged thirty-five years, leaving friends. Miss Sarah Fairley died at Boiestown on the growth of the members on many a the members on the private character and public acts of Dr. Regreson in order to destays, if possible, his evidence, and Dr. Wilson especially was not back-

At the same time it should be understood that thodism---if they do but little for its existence, certainly place that quality to his character under before passed the Legislative Assembly without for strength to speak a few words to her friends. The prayer was heard. She called them to her bedside, spoke a few appropriate words to each, and hade them farewell. Turning from them. and bade them farewell. Turning from them, she said, "I never thought I could willingly part with my friends: I love them much; but I love God so much more I want to be with him." pronouncing part of the stanza commencing, pronouncing part of the stanza commencing, pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. and bade them farewell. Turning from them, she said, "I never thought I could willingly part with my friends: I love them much; but I love God so much more I want to be with him." pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. be asked those around her to sing, and them, pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could willingly part with my friends: I love them much; but I love God so much more I want to be with him." pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could will may be asked those around her to sing, and them, pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could will may be asked those around her to sing, and them, pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could will may be asked those around her to sing, and them. pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could will may be asked those around her to sing, and them. pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could will may be asked those around her to sing, and them. pronouncing part of the stanza commencing. but I could will may be asked those around her to sing and the Work I could are which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Ministry does wall of God and one which the Conference be all assembled there. D pronouncing part of the stanza commencing, "A rise, my soul, arise," ahe assisted in singing to keep in view, that it is right to go not only at the same time. If a large portion of our life fought during the present session. Dr. Ryerson sionary services were held in November. Disto those who want us, but to those who want us must be employed in obtaining the things neces- is already in Quebec, and before this reaches tance from other Circuits rendered a deputation to those who want us, but to those who want us must be employed in obtaining the things neces-most. Our venerable founder recognized and taught others to act upon it. "Where," says secular engagements, and from them, derive Holy Spirit's call to go and work in the Lord's with unconcern, or who murmurs at the necessity presbyterian body, and the Rev. Mr. Poole, ed to. His testimony delivered, he smiled and the intervention of the converts have given the intervention of the converts have given the man is not to be envied who can look on lege. Dr. Cook was present to represent the kind, scripturally expressed, and gratefully listen-the 6th of April, aged thirty-five years, leaving the blessed assurance to her sorrowing friends that ahe has gone to be with Jesus. For some time previous to her death she had heen the subject of that decentive disease, Con-the subject of that decentive disease, Con-For some time previous to her death she had been the subject of that deceptive disease. Con-amption. At first it apparently progressed are not light, nor, to the satisfaction of all con-the subject of will and of series, and the beaching of consistent not in the series do we think that they may generally for so that she beheld "wondrous things out of ing, so that she the she ing so that she the leadings of the ing, so that she the she the ing so that she the arrangements of the Stations, hou the ing so that she the arrangements of the Stations, hou the ing so that she beheld "wondrous things out of ing, so that she beheld "wondrous things out of ing, so that she beheld "wondrous things out of ing, so that she beheld "wondrous things out of ing, so that she beheld "wondrous things out of ing, so that she beheld "wondrous things out o

The Spirit opened the syss of her understand-ing, so that she beheld "wondrous things out of God's law." She saw herself a sinner in the sight of God i but it was not until the early part of the past winter that she was led to give up all for Christ, and enabled by Divine grace to been such as present praver commit the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat the stat the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat the stat the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat the stat these who by carnet praver commit the stat the sta receiving a portion of the endowment, according I cannot avoid thinking that the undying criteria to the actual work accomplished, trembled at of it which I am privileged to witness among this on your valuable space, I will trespass no further passing rapidly through them. No one person to the actual work accomplished, trembled at of it which I am privileged to witness among this all for Christ, and enabled by Divine grace to believe in Him to the saving of her soul. Her burden of guilt was removed—her soul was set at liberty—she praised God for what he had done. She had always cherished a high regard done. She had always cherished a high regard for religion, and those professing it. Those of every name who preach Jesus, who knew her, have had many proofs of her great knew har have had many proofs of her great kindness. This interest for the welfare of Zion was now greatly strengthened. She loved God—she loved His cause. and control to the better in the God—she loved His cause. and control to the better in the Committee is permitted to be, the better in the Committee is permitted to earlie to be supposed that we plead for country like Canada. come more than atone for a fatigued body, and

At the same time it should be understood that these appointments are not made without great care, and that the basis of each is chiefly formcasts out fear and purifies the heart. For this she prayed and agonized. Frequently the sup-plication was continued until she was utterly exhausted. She wished to be baptized, saying "Perhaps if I go forward to this ordinance, over again by the children around them, only un- of the resolut

" taught others to act upon it. "Where," says secular engagements, and from them, derive It is possible that the University Act of 1855 he, "should we endeavour to preach most?" much mental and moral improvement. The very may be superseded by a new Act during the took the chair at Guyaborough, and the very been appointed to serve in conjunction with the from the New the husbendman is increasent in his work-and, movement, and it was generally believed that a advocating the claims of the Fund alluded to, people have not been in vain in the Lord, lead Nepean Clarke, Esq. Collection in St. George's Church, Halifax, after special sermon by

A Yourseller

Society, Maitland 1 5 (bbl. Biscuit, C. D. Hunter, Esq. 1 0 (Mr. Martin, hairdresser, has kindly given his JAS. C. COCHRAN, Sec'n.

Halifax, May 6, 1861.

On Friday morning last, about one o'clock, r readers a prosperous season. some of whom at least will it is hoped, learn duly for Friday morning last, about one o clock, a fire broke out in a large brick building in Dock Yours, in Christian bonds, to appreciate the doctrines and economy which Street, St. John, N. B., the upper part of which urs, in Christian bonds, to appreciate the divine approval in have received the seal of the divine approval in their own conversion. Heartily do we bid God Street, St. John, N. B., the upper part of which was occupied by a Mr. McIntosh. The inmate barely escaped with their lives. The following, age and presence of mind. Very soon after the floors and roof fell in."

The election for Mayor in St. John came off on Tuesday last. T. McAvity was re-elected, re-ceiving 1239 and W. O. Smith, his opponent, but 409.

Canada

Beneral Intelligence.

Colonial.

RESIGNATION OF THE UNION ENGINE COM-

TO HIS WORSHIP THE MAYOR.

May it please Your Worship-I am instructed by Capt. Smithers to acknow-

Halifax, May 7, 1861.

CANADIANS RETURNING FROM THE STATES-Le Courrier de St. Hyacinthe says that within the last fifteen days upwards of 300 French Canadians have returned to that city from the I'

THE COMET .--- The Montreal Wednesday, says :-"The Comet was visible on Monday night, at the Observatory, Isle Jesus. Its approximate position is in the Right Ascension minutes. A line drawn from Phad to Dubbe in the Constellation of Ursa Major, will nearly point out its place. It is visible to the naked eve" ESCAPE OF CRIMINALS FROM THE PENITEN. TIARY.-It is rumored that seven of the most des perate characters in the Penitentiary made a partially successful attempt to escape on Saturday. Among the recaptured are Munford and Johnson Bean, whose recent sentences of death were commuted to imprisonment for life, McCarron, the villain who attempted to kill and rob Mr. Welch at the Suspension Bridge a few years ago; Boyer and another, whose name has not transpired. Young Slavin and McLauchlan, the latter sen tenced for robbery, effected their escape. A rigid enquiry will, no doubt, be made into the circumstance to prevent such an occurrence in future.—Col. Empire.

P. E. Isiand.

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the House of Assembly and presented with an address to the Governor.

sorrow and regret that actual hostilities have commenced between the Northern and Southern commenced between the Northern and Southern States, with whose people we are bound by the ties of a common brotherhood, most sincerely expresses its fervent hope that peace, with all its attendant blessings, may speedily be restored to that country.

The submarine cable between New Brunswick nd P. E. Island, which has been broken since RESIGNATION OF FIREWARDS .---- The following February, was last week overhauled under the superintendence of A. M. McKay, Esq., of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telecommunication from the Firewards of the city was handed in on Saturday last to His Worship We learn from Mr. McKay piece of cable, about a mile in length, will have o be laid down before the injury can be effectively repaired. It is expected that the work will be completed about the middle of this month. -Eastern Chronicle. EXTRAORDINARY COOLNESS OF A BEAR-For some considerable time one or more of these ferocious animals have been the terror of the peaceable inhabitants of Port Hill, Northam and neighbourhood, Prince County, Lot 13. On acount of the large forest to the west of these localties, there has been, and still is very great difficulty in bringing them to account for the The barque Irvine, of Yarmouth, (N. S.) 500 tous register, now lying in Victoria Harbor, has been chartered to carry 150 agricultural emi-grants to Glassville, a new district granted for Yeo—accompanied by a large party of persons, almost be supposed to eclipse in daring the far-famed Indians of the Rocky Mountains, en-RAILWAY.—The friends of the Railway will be tered chisel in hand, head foremost into the dea : bits an increase over April 1860 of $1,403.70 MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT AT MILTON.—On Thursday morning three persons—Charles J. and loyally. Noiselessivit may have been, out yet earnestly and effectually we have continued to pursue the even tenor of our way. The usual routine of duties, Ministerial and special, has been progressing as in the past. The same earn-been progressing as in the past. and powerful voices euphoniously blended with the masterly performance of a 'fair one,' upon the melodeon. This was interchanged for brief, ap-melodeon. This was interchanged for brief, ap-melodeon a solution the ap-melodeon a solution the ap-melodeon a solution the ap-melodeon a solution the ap-melo Hart, Esq., who very creditably sustained the honors of the chair, followed by Rev. J. Thur-We regret to learn that a melancholy accident, Me regret to real at a smiths abandoned their forges, while the farmer Messrs. Curry's Steam Mill, at Stillwater, Wind-left the incompleted furrow, all being animated with the hudable desire to check this unseason Ex.— The building was completed in April. The tober last, and was completed in April. The friends of religion in that new settlement deserve much praise for their promptitude and liberality as regards their beautiful little Sanctuary.— Friends from town and country went to the opening services and swelled the congregation to a little multitude; while they augmented the roog and free to the most unexceptionable, the best soo call gathering the writer has ever been permitted to the hands and one child, were killed by the force of the to attend. The proceeds amounted to the hands and one child, were killed by the force of the to attend. The proceeds amounted to the hands one sum of £20 10s., which were afterwards and free to the morning services, preaching from "They that honour ime, I will honour i" The after noonand evening services were left to the writer, assisted by one of our imerced by one of our importance to the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the writer, assisted by one of our if the tork writer, assisted by one of our if the tork writer, assisted by one of our importance to the local again the subscriptions of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the work of the Lord were commenced in town on the last in the foll as the last in the foll as the last interview. The was associated by one of our importance to the form in the proceeds and the town of the form in the town in the proceeds and the town of the form in the town in the proceeds are subjective. The associated the morning services is the conducted the morning services is the cond were commenced in town on the la has, however, been made, and it has been agreed A young man named Lauthers, belonging to Herring Cove, was drowned in the outer bay on Tuesday. He was on board of a fishing schooner just returned from the banks, and was knocked over board by the "jibeing" of the fore-boom.

Nashwaak, May, 1861.

Provincial WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1861.

We do not undertake to return rejected articles.

We do not assume responsibility for the opinions of our correspondents.

Rev. W. B. Boyce.

The President of the Conference of Eastern British America, arrived in St. John's, Newfid., in the "Adriatic" (s.s.) from Galway on Mon-and of each succeeding Conference, and with tend to excite. day. April 29th.

Mr. Boyce preached on the following evening. St. John's Society, who gave him a most cordial address on our Missions in South Africa, chiefly those of Kafirland.

was supported by short speeches from Rev. Messrs, Lockhart and Brettle. This assembling Surely the Church of Christ has as good a right Surely the past, and of our own times, President, and to assure him of the increasing "every man will do his duty." principles, polity, and objects of our Connexion.

toy for many years to come. p.m. this day. E. B. St. John's. Newfoundland, May 8, 1861.

We have great pleasure in recording the fact, that the Rev. W. B. Boyce arrived safely with his family in Halifax on Sunday morning last at 5, A.M., per Steamer Ospray-preaching the same evening in Grafton Street Church. On Monday morning he left town for Sackville, N. B., with the Rev. C. Churchill, A.M., to be present at the Anniversary Exercises at the Mount Allison Institution, which were to take place vesterday.

The Comiag Conference.

That period of the year is again approaching, when, from the centre of the Conference to its circumference, "the people called Methodists" have entered upon the busiest scenes of another are wont to evince a more than ordinary inter. year. To the really industrious, each lawful day your numerous readers a brief history of the est in the affairs of the Connexion. With the an- is sure to bring its own duties; nevertheless, to University Reform movement. Having exhinual winding up of the Circuit accounts, and the most, the winter months afford a season of com- bited the growth of the Toronto University most, the winter months afford a season of com-parative rest. Then the days are short, so that if they be filled up with labour, there is still a we then glanced at the resolutions of the Wes-if they be filled up with labour, there is still a we then glanced at the resolutions of the Wespreparation of statistics and reports, much labour parative rest. Then the days are short, so that Monopoly to its present gigantic proportions.nd solicitude devolve always on the Ministers wide margin left for mental improvement and levan Conference; the action of the various domestic enjoyment. And, occasionally, at District Meetings in petitioning the Legislature, as an encumbrance upon this neat superstruc- and cannot be described. The improved state Herring Cove, was drowned in the outer bay on of our body, and often, also on the official memtrict Meeting soon succeeds, where the progress the whole day must be spent within doors. But tary Committee for investigation. It was before

Where there is the greatest number of quiet and labour which brings the sweat to the brow, and present session of Parliament. where there is the greatest number of quiet and labour which orings the sweat to the brow, and present session of Fariament. willing hearers; and where there is most fruit." procures the bread that perisheth, may also be It will be a proud day for Canada when her Chairman, and of the Rev. S. Snider, Congrega-"We are induced to adopt this course in con-

(Vide Large Minutes.) When the principle, but what is meant by the expression? If Me-But what is meant by the expression? If Methodism be "Christianity in earnest," why should the investigation of which may be beneficial alike those who help themselves." With one National the meetings interesting, instructive and profitwe not hope and labour to extend its borders, in directing our own efforts and in exciting our University, it is proposed that each College con-

In consequence of the official relation which this paper sustains to the Conference of Eastern British America, we require that Obituary, Revival, and other notices addressed to us from any of the Circuits within the bounds of the Concention, shall pass through the hands of the Superintendent Minister. Communications designed for this paper must be ac-companied by the name of the writer in confidence. The name of the superintendent Minister. Communications designed for this paper must be ac-companied by the name of the writer in confidence. The phenomena of the atmosphere, or their influ-cords and to call forth their energies in conse-tration to Christ. We cannot by such means of Wesleyan Methodism. In view, then, of the deliberations of the next, in conjunction with the world's redemption, they liamentary grants, or both, shall constitute one hoped will yet equal, at least, last year's.

reference to their kind consideration of those It will be readily admitted that an antitude cases in which we feel specially interested, let every for such intellectual efforts, and a relish for such College according to its works in imparting the success of our lady friends in one of their good and afterwards met the official members of the Circuit look well to its own internal harmony and enjoyments are only to be gained by a certain education prescribed by national authority." prosperity. It has often given us delight, as the amount of leisure and expense. First principles welcome. He preached twice on the ensuing prosperity. It has often given us delight, as the must be understood, and the power to reason Sabbath, and administered the Lord's supper. zeal and self-denying exertions of those who conclusively must be acquired. Books, maps, On Tuesday, 7th inst., he delivered an interesting had in charge the collection of Circuit and Mis- and instruments will also have to be obtained.

sionary contributions. Were their feelings more Yet here are no insuperable difficulties. Let But the principal service on a week day which generally shared by the members of our Churches time be husbanded and redeemed from ignoble and congregations, and were the objects of purposes-for every moment is worth more than our President has attended here, was a social such solicitude increased so as to embrace all gold; let economy be practised, and even selftea-meeting in the basement of the church on our Connexional schemes, it would, with very denial, in order to furnish the means for promot-Monday, May 6th, of the Society and the pew-inconsiderable effort, relieve the minds of those ing scientific pursuits, and the discipline thus holders. Mr. Boyce there delivered an address which was highly gratifying to the company. He

Messrs. Lockhart and Brettle. This assembling Surely the Church of Christ has as good a right to expect from its member, as England in the is replete with illustrations of true greatness, of our people on Monday last to welcome the days of its peril had from its defenders, that which owe their distinction as much to the humble origin of the parties concerned, and to the

" every man will do his duty." our origin of the parties concerned, and to the It may not be deemed out of place for us just difficulties with which they had to encounter, as was a season to be remembered with grateful to remind those lay gentlemen whose names ap- to the force of their genius, the originality of pear on the Committee lists for the next Con- their conceptions, or the height of their attain-Mr. Boyce accompanied by Mrs. Boyce and beir doughter leaves this place for Mr. Boyce and their daughter, leaves this place for Halifax in desired that they should be present to take part the facilities which now exist, the march of inthe mail steamship "Ospray" at five o'clock, in the proceedings. We wish them thoroughly telligence and self-culture will be more general to understand the working and the value of our than formerly. He who aforetime attained to various agencies, and we shall be most happy to listen to any suggestions which they may have to offer, or to avail ourselves of the assistance of but he who does not now distinguish himself for their practical business habits. It is not to be some good quality, is in great danger of being doubted that, if the same interest were shown thought peculiarly dull, or persistently indolent. in regard to these matters which is often ex- It may be hoped that even in this fast age there hibited with respect to political or merely ame-liorative institutions, we should have a more prosperous Connexion, and the Redeemer of our prosperous Connexion, and the Redeemer of our race would sconer see of the travail of His soul christian friends. True philanthropy may thus around our youth, and may sow good seed, whose

Labour Conducive to Mental Im- fruit will appear after many days.

Canada Correspondence.

cration to Christ. We cannot by such means ence upon vegetation, may not only be a happier University College to receive double the sum total failure of the mackarel fishery, which has tarnish our reputation, as "the friends of all, and holier man for his information, but a more granted to any other College. And as Dr. completely erippled the finances of this section of the opinions of the enemies of none." Nay, it may be ques-tioned whether we really maintain this character, unless, as much as in us lies, we endeavour to uphold the system and to promote the efficiency the enemies of none." Nay, it may be ques- thrifty one too. And so with the mechanic, the Ryerson says in his reply to a recent Pamphlet the country, and involved many in the hardships they suggest, and by the hallowed feelings which, whether arising from the sale of lands, or par- modify the actual income, which, however, it

> University Fund, and be distributed, as in the case of Common and Grammar Schools, to each

> > VERITAS.

Canada West. April. 1861.

Letter from Charlottetown.

MR. EDITOR .- The readers of the Provincial Vesleyan may have decided that, so far as intellience of our welfare is concerned, the Charlottewn District is defunct, or at best, speechless. Nevertheless we yet live both Methodistically and loyally. Noiselessly it may have been, but yet Terrors. Our history in these respects is unuestionably but a transcript of that of many other communities ; there are, however, events to describe briefly the services connected with honors of the chair, followed by Rev. J. Thur-THE OPENING OF THE NEW WILTSHIRE CHAP-were left to the writer, assisted by one of our noble staff of Local Brethren, Mr. F B. Strong. were left to the work of the base of the ture. of our Societies in Guysborough, Cape Canso,

My next item is less cheering. Among the con-tributors to the C. F. Allison Professorship in the restoration of not a few who had made ship-that not with standing his almost unrivalled au-that not with standing his almost unrivalled au-dacity—the quadruped displayed a degree of sa-tributors to the C. F. Allison Professorship in the restoration of not a few who had made ship-that not with standing his almost unrivalled au-dacity—the quadruped displayed a degree of sa-gacity which might almost command the respect of the bined race, in thus paying a visit to the when lengthening day and the warmer rays of this Committee that the great battle between the tributors to the C. F. Allison Professorship in the restoration of not a few who had made shipwhen lengthening day and the warmer drays of the sun cause the snow to melt and the ice upon the Circuits are then content to dispense with the services of their Pastors for a few weeks. the Circuits are then content to dispense with the services of their Pastors for a few weeks; while others, and especially such as lie on the great lines of travel, are often gratified by the to eatch the inspiration of the season and to be-grate duties of life afresh. Again the ed emong them, and whose presence recalls coaster ventures his bark upon the briny deep— the subject, were decidedly hostile to the reform valuable services of Francis Cook, Eso, our Vide Large Minutes.) Perhaps it will be objected that this supposes in the means whereby in us patience shall have its perfect work. Not only so, but the labour of the same broad and efficient basis with her its supposes in the means whereby in the means whereb who is now in this country promoting the emi-gration movement.—Greenock Advertiser.

Henry A. Taylor, Wm. H. Pallister, Alex. Stephens, James Wilson, Robert Davis, Wm. Kandick, Wm. Henry Hart, R. T. Roome. Halifax, May 11th, 1861.

Thursday, the 27th of December, will long be memorable to many, because of the complete success of our lady friends in one of their good success of our lady friends in one of their good works. At a meeting of their Benevelent So-ciety, (which to their honour, and to provoke others to deeds of charity be it said, has exist-others to deeds of charity be it said, has exist-ad since 1823, and made and distributed over Mathematical states are an and since the states of the others to deeds of charity be it said, has exist-ed since 1823, and made and distributed over 2,300 garments among the poor,) it had been re-solved to hold a Tea Meeting, whose proceeds should be appropriated towards the better fur-nishing and completely finishing of the interior est preaching, speechifying, contributing and planning, have characterized our existence as in the days of our honoured predecessors. Oc-casionally cheered by some manifestation of ad-startled by the solemn tramp of the King of ed, might well nigh set all flattery at defiance, the musical repast commenced, in which sweet and powerful voices euphoniously blended with low. Rev. A. F. Porter, (Baptist,) S. Hamilton, Esq., (Episcopalian,) and J. Wylde, Esq., (Epis-sor Road, on Tuesday morning last. The flue of with the laudable desire to check this unseaso

t. L The steamer Osprey arrived from St. John's, L 0 0 L

counteract the evil influences which are thrown

MR. EDITOR .- In a former letter we gave provement. With the return of spring, the great majority of our readers, and of the population generally,