A union meeting of the Presbyterian congregations of Gorrie and Fordwich, held in the latter village on Thursday last decided to extend a call to Rev. Mr. Haig, of Manitoba.

Mr. Hay, of Listowel, was in town on Tuesday buying horses. We understand he only purchased one horse, that being a fine draught horse which he got from ex-councillor Johnston.

Quite a number of horses were brought to Gorrie on Tuesday for the inspection of the buyers who were here, but the latter were chary of buying and we understand only one deal was made.

Mr. Alex Strong has been laid up for a week or so past with an attack of la grippe. His symptoms were quite serious for a time but he is now, we are pleased to state, recovering nicely.

The Howick and Turnberry public are invited to call at our showrooms and see our great display of monuments and headstones. The finest ever shown here. VANSTONE BROS., Wingham.

Miss Kinsey has the millinery department at W. S. Bean's general store, in an advanced state, and many of the ladies are viewing the novelties every day although no formal millinery opening has been announced.

Conductor Troyer has been removed to the Owen Sound branch of the C.P.R. Conductor Sheppard taking the run on the Teeswater line. Both "Jake" and "Ben" are trustworthy and popular officials and have hosts of friends all along the Toronto Grey and Bruce Division.

Mr. W. G. Knowlson, who has lately rented Mr. Jas. Leech's store, has been busy since the arrival of his stock last Wednesday evening, and now has the goods very tastily displayed. He carries everything in the line of dry goods, groceries, clothing and general merchandise, and invites the public to watch for his advertisement in the GAZETTE next week. Mr. Knowlson is well known hereabouts, having been connected with the general store of his brother-in-law Mr. D. Montgomery, in this village for several years.

Mr. Isaac Sanderson, of this village, had a narrow escape from drowning, a week or so ago. He noticed a cow struggling in the swollen river and unable to get to shore on account of the ice along the edges of the stream. He attempted to crawl on the ice to the swimming cow, and pass a rope over her horns so as to lead her to an opening which Mr. Hays was cutting near by so that she could land; but just as he reached the animal, the ice broke under him, and he was compelled to struggle for his life in the swift running current. He sank completely under water twice, and twice the rotten ice again broke under his weight as he again tried to crawl upon it, but he finally succeeded in effecting a landing. He proceeded home at once and changed his clothes, and beyond a slight cold was none the worse for the accident, although the call was a close one.

Fall wheat has withstood the winter nicely, and presents a fine appearance. If it escapes the frosts and thaws of the early spring, there are prospects for a heavy yield.

As the snow disappears the boys are turning their attention to out-door sports. It is likely foot-ball will predominate, while baseball will not be neglected and cricket club may be organized.

Last Friday a genuine thunderstorm passed over this section, accompanied by a heavy rain. The usual gold snap followed, however, and a few days excellent skating was enjoyed on the mill pond.

The sleighing it now about gone, although in some places the snow is quite deep on the roads. Road carts are about the only vehicles in which one can move about with any degree of comfort.

Rev. Mr. Ball, of Trowbridge, occupied the Methodist pulpit in Gorrie, last Sunday, morning and evening, preaching excellent sermons. The revival meetings are still being continued and much interest is manifested.

We are informed the Salvation Army are preparing what is known as a mission circle, with stations at Fordwich, Gorrie, Wroxeter and Belmore, at which places meetings are to be held weekly, the "circle" to be presided over by a Capt. and a Lieutenant.

A barn belonging to a Mr. Eckett, of Morris, was burned to the ground last Friday night. A cow, a span of horses, three calves and a lot of poultry, together with a large amount of farm implements, were consumed with the building. We have not learned the total amount of the loss, or of all the insurance carried, but the Howick Mutual is interested to the amount of $850.

OBITUARY.—This section has lost an old and highly esteemed resident in the death of Mr. David Gemmill, which occurred at his homestead near the Salem churches, just north of Wroxeter, on Tuesday afternoon last, at the age of 74 years. Deceased was always robust until a year or two ago when he was attacked by la grippe, since which time he has been quite feeble. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, but came with his parents, when he was three years old, to Lanark Co., Ont. He has lived in Turnberry for 35 years struggling with the pioneers in the then forest, and latterly enjoying the affluence which followed the years of toil in his early life. In politics he was a sturdy Reformer. He was one of the founders of the Salem Congregational church, and has ever since remained a consistent, staunch supporter of that church. About two years ago he and his wife celebrated their golden wedding, which was indeed an interesting occasion, not only to the family but to the large gathering of friends who were present. Besides his widow he leaves a family of eight children living, as follows:—John, the eldest now living in Michigan; Mrs. McCallum in Minnesota; Alex., Wroxeter; Mrs. Hemphill, Minnesota; Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Whitley, Manitoba; D. W. at present travelling in the U. S., and A. D. who resides in Ohio. His funeral occurs this (Thursday) afternoon, the remains being interred in the graveyard near where he spent so many years of his active, useful life.

Another very sad calamity has befallen our vicinity in the death of Mrs. D. Marshall formerly Miss Montgomery of Wroxeter. She died on Wednesday the 22nd inst and was buried in Gorrie cemetery on Friday 24th inst. The funeral was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

There are bills out for a Magic Lantern exhibition given by C. Barlow. The music of the entertainment will be furnished by Prof. H. Allan the blind vocalist of London England. A good time is expected.

The people of this place will soon need to get afraid as the water is raising quickly. The beaver-meadow and commons are flooded.

Fordwich.

FOR SALE.—An Apiary of twelve hives with every appliance, all first-class. Must be sold at once. Apply to R. G. DARBY, Fordwich.

Mr. Hunter has recovered from his recent illness and is back to his post at the hardware store again.

Mr. J. C. Bell is opening a grand stock of wall paper this spring. Notice his displayed ad. in another part of the GAZETTE.

R. H. Fortune, V.S. of Wroxeter, had about decided to cease his Monday visits to Fordwich, but has now made arrangements by which he will be able to continue his trips here as usual. His business here is growing nicely.

The revival meetings, which have been carried on in the Methodist church here for some weeks past, have closed. The floods here have, so far, passed off in safety and no material injury has resulted, although the water has been very high at times.

No purchaser was found for the village property which was offered for sale under mortgage here on Tuesday of last week.

Wednesday evening was the occasion of great hilarity here. Our young people met at Mr. Moore's and tripped the light fantastic until early dawn. Some of the boys danced as many as four dances in succession, and others went as far as the "sixth."

Hunter & Henry are rushing things in the sap line this week.

Mrs. Strathy has returned home from Toronto where she has been visiting for some time past. While away she has carefully watched the latest styles in millinery, attending all the openings, and she has brought with her a large stock of the choicest things in millinery which will shortly be displayed at her old stand in this village.

Wroxeter.

The date of the Wroxeter Spring Show has been set for Tuesday, April the 11th.

Miss Johnston, of St. Marys, will preside over the millinery department at J. W. Sanderson's store this spring. Some lovely things in the millinery line are to be seen at this store.

The saw-mill yard is fairly choked with logs, while both sides of the adjacent streets are also well loaded. A large season's work is before the energetic managers of this mill.

The street known as "the Ninth," between the railway crossing and Dr. Smale's residence, is badly flooded at present, and several vehicles have come to grief while trying to make the passage. Better go around by the town hall corner for the present.

Mr. Jas. Fox, druggist, was in Harrison on Monday, on a business trip.

Dr. Allan, reeve of Arthur, and W. Peterkin, Esq., also of that village, were in town on Monday last for a short time. Mr. Jas. Ireland was in Mt. Forest last Monday, returning on the late train. Rev. Mr. Davidson was visiting his aged parents at Mt. Forest for a short time early in the week.

Sleighing, for this season, is evidently a thing of the past, and wheeled vehicles are getting quite numerous.

Last Chance for Poets.

Welch & Graves, Natural Bridge, N. Y., have just invented a "dandy" trolling apparatus which is going to take the lead at once. It consists of a tube of annealed magnifying glass perforated so that a live minnow or other bait can be kept in it all day. The apparatus is made in three sizes, as follows: No. 1, price $1.50; No. 2, $1.25; No. 3, $1. Orders must be accompanied by cash.
