Wil Play Civilians and Military Men at Armouries Shortly

Philip Sanders of Eyercit Mass, the juvenile sheeker champion of the world, is in the city today making agrangements to ment Ballevile checker players in the course of the next ten days. Mr. Sanders has this wee players in the course of the next ten days. Mr. Sanders has this wee played in Kingston and although leaving tonight will be back shortly.

Belleville is one of the best chacker towns in Contanto he says. Mr. Sanders is sumprised at the number of men interested. The Belleville champions are very active.

pions aire very active. as can come together and play simultaneously. He will also play a numher of games blindfolded

The games will likely be played at the armouries. Military men in the city are particularly interested as checkers and chess are called mimis hattlefields. They resemble the game of war very closely

Mr. Sanders won the juvenile chainpionship of the world at a tournament in Boston when he was 13 years of age. He has never been beaten in a match He has played Richard and draws. In the last seven exhibitions played he has not lost any, winning 155 games and securing 11 draws. Ha is the youngest man in the world to play blind-folded. He has been going through New York and is now working his through Canada to the west. He does not play checkers all the time for he
