RISE! for the day is passing, And you lie dreaming on; The others have buckled their arm And forth to the fight are gone : A place in the ranks awaits you, Each man has some part to play; The Past and the Future are nothing In the face of the stern To-Day.

Of gaining some hard-fought field Of storming some airy fortress, Or bidding some giant yield; Your future has deeds of glory, Of honour (God grant it may!) But your arm will never be stronger Or the need so great as To-Day.

Rise! if the Past detains you, Her sunshine and storms forget: No chains so unworthy to hold you As those of a vair poret ; Cast her phantom arms away,

Of a nobler strife To-Day. Rise! for the day is passing: The sound that you scarcely hear Is the enemy marching to battle Arise! for the foe is here! Stay not to sharpen your weapons Or the hour will strike at last,
