HARRY THAW JUMPS TO LIBERTY IN AUTO, HEADS FOR EUROPE

Slayer of Stanford White Makes Successful Dash for Freedom to a Waiting Automobile Early Sunday Morning and Was Soon Across Connecticut State Line With Europe as Destination

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw received about noon to-day a letter from her son, Harry K. Thaw, who escaped from Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane early yesterday.

The letter was postmarked "New York, Aug. 17, 12 p.m., Station O." Inside on a slip of paper was Thaw's communication written in pencil. It ran as follows:

"All well. Shall take a rest before going to Elmhurst, as I might be asked for interviews and do not wish to refuse, yet do not care to make any statements. Hope M. and G. (Mr. and Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie), arrived safe and that you will go home to sister. Have sent a short note to the Journal.

(Signed) H.K.T." The fugitive had apparently intended sending the foregoing as a night letter for it was so marked. He changed his mind, however, and gave it to some one to mail for him. Whoever did this, addressed it in ink in a scrawley, untutored hand.

In giving out this letter, Mrs. Thaw explained that it was in her son's handwriting and for that reason she knew that it had come from him. She added that she did not know

QUEEN'S WISHES

In Regard to the Wedding of Prince Arthur of Connaught.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—Queen Mary wishes to be in town in plenty of time to help with practical suggestions in connection with the Connaught-Fife wedding in October. It is understood that Her Majesty, as well as the Princess Royal, mother of the bride, would prefer the wedding to take place in the private chapel of Buckingham Palace.

Queen Alexandra had a party for Windsor, where the parents of the bridegroom were married in 1879. However, the Chapel Royal, St. James, has been chosen for two reasons:

—That only a comparatively limited number of His Majesty's subjects could witness the street pageant at Windsor while the London thoroughfares afford space for a very great throng.

—That the Chapel Royal of St. James affords more space for guests than either of the other two chapels mentioned.

Prince Arthur of Connaught is said to have given his escort the celebrated mascot ring, which belonged to the "Red Prince." It was a gift to him from his mother, who is a descendant of the "Red Prince" who was uniformly successful in his undertakings whenever he wore it.

It is understood that Scottish home-coming will play a prominent part in the young Duchess' trousseau. She intends to wear not only a bit of tartan, but to carry a bouquet of white heather on her wedding day and scarlet ostrichs that always distinguished the Duke of Fife's progress in his summer days, will escort her home.

The Dukes of Fife always exacted and received a great deal of homage from their retainers. The late Duke was always attended bareheaded by his servant no matter what the weather.

Very Narrow Escape For This Little Boy

Young O'Reilly of American Hotel Fell in River Sunday Morning.

The younger son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly of the American Hotel, had a narrow escape from being drowned in the river below Jubilee Terrace yesterday morning about nine o'clock. The young lad was playing there and fell into the river. His screams were heard by a man who was sitting on one of the benches on the Terrace who ran and jumped into the river and pulled the boy out.

Unique Taxpayers Strike Is Planned By Brant Avenue Residents Regarding Pavement

Of all the strikes ever attempted in Brantford, the latest, a taxpayers' affair is probably the most unique, and will be watched with interest. There is a movement on foot on Brant avenue to have every property-owner of the avenue decline debenture payment towards the Westrumite pavement. When the bills for taxes are due it is proposed to wipe out the amount chargeable on account of pavement. The item is no small sum. "If the ratepayers co-operate and do this, it will take the city short time to make the Westrumite Company sit up and take notice," said a prominent ratepayer of the street to the Courier. "It is a sure thing that the city would not strain for taxes on every property-owner. If they did, they would get beaten, because there is a law of contract between taxpayers and a corporation, the same as between individuals. At the present time the people are paying for something they are not getting, and they have a right to refuse further payment. The condition of the street is a disgrace, and it is also a menace to life and limb."

It might be pointed out that ultimatum galore have been sent by the city to the Westrumite officials without success. Brant avenue at present is in a deplorable condition, and it is only a question of time until something happens which will evolve indictments against the city. The general impression of every ratepayer on the street is that Brantford contains a long-suffering public and an officialdom which takes continual delight in getting it put all over them.

FREDDIE GUEST HURT AT PARIS

His Scalp Almost Completely Torn From His Head At Penman's.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—Freddie Guest, the fourteen year old son of Mrs. Guest and the late Edwin Guest, who was shot and killed near Paris, nine months ago, was very badly hurt in Penman's No. 1 mill at 3.40 p.m. on Friday. He must have put his head in the elevator shaft as the elevator was descending, and his head was caught between the guard bar and the floor of the elevator. The scalp was almost completely torn from his head, and his face was very badly smashed and cut. He was immediately removed to Dr. Burt's office where the scalp was replaced and his other wounds dressed. The boy still lies in an unconscious state, but the doctor has strong hopes for his recovery, as no fracture of the skull could be noted.

Freddie is the oldest boy, and the chief mainstay of the family. His first words were, after being picked up from the floor, "I shall still be spared to help mother, won't I?" Latest reports are that he is doing as well as can be expected.

BUSY SESSION WITH THE POLICE

Annie Taylor Gets Six Months More For Disorderly House.

Quite a long list of cases were before the magistrate this morning, ranging from disorderly conduct cases to keepers of disorderly houses, but wonderful to relate, there were no drunks on the docket.

Chris Young was again arrested for not working. Chris says he's not very fond of working, but promises to go to work steadily now. He was allowed to go.

Annie Taylor, who has just finished serving a six month term for keeping houses of ill-fame, was again arrested on a similar charge. She was found to be guilty, and the magistrate thought six months more ought to cure her. She was given the option of paying $25, but preferred going to jail.

Three frequenters of the house, Dan Donohue, Wm. Holt and Wm. Ryan were allowed off with a warning.

Two foreigners, Rex and Raffaele, who were travelling together with the former's wife and child, had trouble with the joint baggage. Rex also charges Raffaele with stealing fifty dollars. The case was adjourned for a week in order to get two trunks which came into the case.

Ardie McCoy and John Russo, were disturbing the slumbers of residents in the East ward at an early hour Sunday morning; as they were not really disorderly, they were let go.

Andrew Bower, an employee at Mohawk Park, was charged with being a vagrant, but as he has a job to go to, he was given a warning and let off.

Ben Curley, an Indian, was found drinking whiskey Saturday evening with a man named Pickering. Curley couldn't swear to the time, as he was going by the city hall clock. As the whiskey was found on the possession of both, Curley was fined $25 and Pickering was fined $50, as he evidently procured the whiskey.

Louis Bankin was charged with being disorderly and with assaulting two young girls in the East ward. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Killed Man Identified HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 18.—The man who was cut to pieces last week by a T. H. & B. train at the Hunter street station, has been identified as Thomas Field, who boarded at 130 Forest avenue. The owner of the house found a note to-day, signed by Field, in which he said his friends and money were all gone and that he had been inhaling gas all day with out effect to end his life.

Never send a present hoping for one in return.

PRINCE OF WALES ATTENDS EVENT

Great Preparations Are Being Made For Wedding of King Manuel.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Prince of Wales will represent the King at the marriage of Manuel of Portugal and Princess Augustine Victoria of Hohenzollern, which is definitely fixed to take place at Sigmaringen, the home of the bride, September 4 day. Eighty royal princes and princesses will attend the ceremony. The Kaiser will be represented by one of his sons, the King of Italy by the Duke of Genoa, the King of Spain by the Infant Don Carlos and his wife, the Infanta Louise. Most of the guests will assemble at Prince William's Castle at Sigmaringen on Sept. 2, and the marriage will be celebrated according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church in the castle chapel. Cardinal Netto, late Archbishop of Lisbon, will conduct the religious part of the service and Count Edinger, Earl marshal to the Hohenzollern family will perform the civil ceremony. The bride will be given away by her father and four royal princesses are expected to act as bridesmaids.

The wedding presents include a magnificent set of silver for the table from King George and Queen Mary, the largest piece of which bears the inscription "To King Manuel on the occasion of his marriage, from his affectionate cousins, King George and Queen Mary, September three."

The royal use of the word 'cousins' is to be noted for Mannels blood relationship with the British reigning house is not particularly close. The late King Carlos of Portugal and George V. were third cousins, their common ancestor being Duke Francis Frederick of Saxe-Cobourg, grandfather of Queen Victoria's husband.

Another wedding present for King Manuel is a gold wine flagon from Queen Alexandra with the greeting, "For my dear Manuel, King of Portugal from his affectionate aunt, Alexandra."

AGNES ALMA PATTERSON OF ECHO PLACE DIED THIS MORNING SUDDENLY.

Death called a bright young life home early this morning in the person of Miss Agnes Alma Patterson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patterson, Echo Place.

The late Miss Patterson was 23 years of age, and of kindly disposition, and death came very suddenly. She was a member of Alexandra Presbyterian Church, where she will be greatly missed, as well as in all other circles. Besides the sorrowing father and mother, one brother, and five sisters, all at home, are left to mourn the loss, as well as many friends, who will condole with the family. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

MOB STORMED HOTEL BELMONT

Fakir Put a Rich One Over Market Crowd Saturday Night.

Host Fraser of the Belmont Hotel almost had to close his doors Saturday night, there was an angry mob outside, demanding admittance, not to the bar because it was after hours. They waited and watched, however, one taker, who had been holding tort on the market and who was said to have stopped at the Belmont. He registered there as M. Morrison of Toronto and had with him P. Welch of the same place. Inside of an hour Morrison is said to have disposed of 40 watches at $10 per on the market. He had a great assemblage and commenced festivities by giving certain things away. One person who lent him $10 received $71 in exchange. It was the old game. Other little wrinkles were pulled off and the crowd finally bit savagely. When the time pieces were examined it was found that they were worse than city hall clocks. An axe wouldn't make one move in the right direction. In a few minutes the crowd realized what had been put over. They adjourned to the Belmont hotel where they lingered threateningly. Mr. Bird, however, had flown. He did not care to renew acquaintances. It was quite possible his methods were legitimate as a near crowd that is too wise to get beaten.

Incidentally there is a row on today in municipal circles. Who signed the license for the fellow to operate? City Clerk Leonard, Market Clerk McAuley and Chief Slemmon have the alleged right to voice. Mayor Hartman did not give the license but says he will find out to-night who did. The girl in the City Treasurer's office was out of the city today and could not be communicated with. It is said that she can throw some light on the matter.

At any rate it is the story. "He who expects something for nothing gets stung."

Graham Stratford Forsakes the Bank

Brantford Young Man is Forging Ahead in Calgary.

A Calgary newspaper contains the appended paragraph, which has a special interest to Brantfordites: "Abandoning finance for industry, Mr. Graham K. Stratford, who lately resigned his position as assistant manager of the King and York streets branch of the Imperial Bank, has just entered with his new duties as treasurer of the Western Canada Flour Milling Co. Mr. Stratford, who hails from Brantford, entered the service of the Imperial Bank in 1904, being until two years ago accountant at the Calgary main office, in which city he has a large circle of friends."

Mr. Stratford is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stratford of this city. The company which he has joined is one of the largest organizations of its kind in the Dominion. His many Brantford friends will wish him success.

Bright Young Girl Is Called to Rest

Place Died This Morning Suddenly.

Death called a bright young life home early this morning in the person of Miss Agnes Alma Patterson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patterson, Echo Place.

The late Miss Patterson was 23 years of age, and of kindly disposition, and death came very suddenly. She was a member of Alexandra Presbyterian Church, where she will be greatly missed, as well as in all other circles. LABOR TROUBLE NOT ALL OVER YET IN THE CITY OF VANCOUVER

Unions Are Calling Upon All Members Who Belong to the Militia to Resign—Leaders Are Being Arrested, Charged With Inciting to Riot—Strong Efforts Made to Reach a Settlement.

[Canadian Press Despatch] VANCOUVER, Aug. 18.—With no further rioting and with more than 1,200 armed men comfortably distributed among the coal mining towns of the Vancouver Island strike zone, the residents had a chance for quiet nerves over Sunday.

The chief excitement centered in the bringing in of 25 refugees from the hills where they had been driven last Wednesday by the rioters. Fourteen were women and children, and the privations they had suffered were terrible. They had almost nothing to eat, and their hands, faces and clothing were cut by their travels in the woods. They were first given the freedom of a Nanaimo restaurant and were then looked over by a doctor to see they had no permanent injuries.

J. J. Taylor, vice-president of the miners' union, and a prominent official of the B. C. Federation of Labor, is in jail along with John Naylor, president of the Cumberland union. The miners are very indignant about these arrests on charges of inciting to riot. These arrests were the signal for a general move on the part of union leaders in all the coast cities to call mass meetings to commence a public agitation for the withdrawal of the militia. Unusual measures are being taken to undermine the military end of the campaign, and a call is being sent to all labor organizations to take steps to expel from the unions all militiamen who have taken the field.

The Vancouver street railwaymen's union have already demanded that any of its members who now belong to the militia shall resign from the regiment. The strikers called a meeting in Nanaimo Saturday, but Col. Hall, who is in charge, called it off. On Sunday a mass meeting was held in the hall at Extension, but nothing was done except kick against the government.

In addition to one hundred warrants sworn out Saturday against riot leaders at Nanaimo, another 85 were issued Sunday against residents of Ladysmith. In Ladysmith almost every non-union man has left town following personal hints passed out by the miners committee. Included among those who were ordered to get out were Patrick Malone, ex-Mayor of Ladysmith and Councilor Lauterback. Nanaimo residents declare that hundreds of men have been shipped in by I. W. W. leaders in Vancouver since the strike started, and it is these strangers and not the real Nanaimo miners who have been heading the disturbances.

AND CAN THIS BE TRUE?

The Courier stand in regard to street railway matters is absolutely right. This comment is heard on all sides on the street, and the general tone of the public in regard to the service and everything connected with the rickety old ramshackle affair is one of indignation. Perhaps the richest man in the city yet made in regard to the road was delivered by a citizen Saturday who happened to know the inside of things when the Grand Valley was being exploited a few years ago. "In those days," he said, "they were buying drinks with bonds. Goodness knows where those bonds are scattered now."

ROYALTY AT PLAY

England is Playground of Many Kings and Queens.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, Aug. 18.—England has often been called the play ground of kings. If this season that characterization of the city has not been strictly true so far as the kings themselves are concerned, London has certainly been the playground of their families. In spite of there having been no official visits to this country, there have never been so many visiting royal parties as this year. Not only has the Kaiser's brother, Prince Henry of Prussia been at Cowes in a more or less official capacity, but three of His Imperial Majesty's sons have been having a gay time here. Prince and Princess Eitel Friedrich stayed for several weeks at the Ritz, where their incognito was so well kept that only in the last week did their presence leak out. They are now automobiling and sight-seeing in Scotland with Prince Joachim, the Kaiser's youngest son.

It is Count and Countess Holstein-Potsdam who have been staying at Clifton for some weeks past, and not the German Crown Prince and Princess. The likenesses are so wonderful that the pair should be hired as doubles when the German heir-apparent and his wife wish to take a private jaunt.

Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia is another visitor, staying quietly with the Duke of Connaught. Prince and Princess Augustus Wilhelm of Prussia are also in London.

Queen Mary's cousins have been represented this season by the Landgrave of Hesse. Princess Frederick Charles and the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz.

Mother Queen Busy. LONDON, Aug. 18.—Queen Alexandra is enjoying a quiet time at Sandringham, where each day she may be seen arranging her garden and planting out beds for the winter. The flowers at Sandringham have been wonderful this year, and many consignments of roses, lilies and other sweet-smelling blossoms have been sent to some of the specially favored London hospitals.

King George by attending the Doncaster races next month will follow the example of his father, who attended the great Yorkshire race carnival for five successive years, but this will be the first visit of King George. For the St. Ledger he will be the guest of Lord and Lady Fitzwilliam at Wentworth.

Mr. J. S. Weir, Manager of the Temple Shoe Store, left on Saturday for Owen Sound to visit his parents in that city.
