Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

Don't you want the Lord to take care of you tonight? asked the anxious father.

What's the porter here for? was the child's response.

COLDBROOK

John W. Wood is doing a rushing business this season thrashing. Success to him.

A genuine surprise party took place one night recently. A number of young folk assembled at the Fuller house at a late hour, and a fiddle discoursed sweet music to them while they danced, until far into the wee sma' hours.

Corralus N. Croft has purchased the Fullerton property and rumor has it that he will begin horse keeping soon.

In some orchards here the crop is fairly good, whilst in others it is very light and some fruit is of poor quality.

Coldbrook has become so important and dignified that it now possesses "Town Criers." They can be heard at almost any hour of the day or night. "A still tongue makes a wise head." A fool utters all his mind until afterwards.

Mrs. Charles Tupper, of Brookly St., has purchased Mr. Thomas Griffin's farm, and has taken possession, but we are happy to state that Mr. and Mrs. Griffin will reside on the farm. Mr. Tupper married one of their daughters.

Mr. Robert Collin fills a long felt want, being a Shoemaker and Blacksmith combined. He can make and repair shoes for man or beast, and do it in the latest style too. The ring of the anvil is pleasant to hear, and he should be well patronized.

We are sorry to state that John N. Church is still very poorly. No hope is entertained that he will ever be able to get about again. He has been confined to his bed for ten years.

Mrs. David Croft visited friends in Kentville last Tuesday, 16th.

Mrs. Wm. Sutherland visited friends in Kentville last Wednesday.

We would call the attention of four Councilors to those old cellars on the corner near the station. If they are not fenced or filled up, some unfortunate will bring a suit against the county for damages. Two waggons and their occupants have already fallen into one of them, but fortunately without serious injury to anyone.

Mr. Peter Innes has had built and now occupies a very fine house. It is called the Coldstream Mansion.

The new iron bridge arrived the 18th. It replaces the wooden one over the Cornwallis River, familiarly known as the Lovitt bridge.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and am prepared to say that for all cases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia we never claimed it. It will cure coughs, colds of all kinds. I first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying ever since.

Three sizes: No. 1, enough for an ordinary cold; No. 2, just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hoarse colds, etc.; No. 3, most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Children's Meals.

Children should be taught to eat regular meals and to take between meals. This rule applies to infants as well as to older children. The practice of feeding the infant every time it cries is a most serious injury to its weak digestive organs. Infant's stomach, though it needs at more frequent intervals—two hours, according to its age—the same regularity which is essential to the maintenance of healthy condition in older persons. The irregularity usually practiced is undoubtedly one of the greatest causes of the mortality of infants from disordered digestive organs, as appears from mortuary reports.

BABY'S FIRST TOOTH

A Family Event That Does Always Bring Unmixed Joy

Baby's first tooth does not go unannounced. Inflamed gum, unimpaired digestion produce a harsh and fretful condition, which the mother feels. The baby boy of Mrs. George Gregor, of Hamilton, Ontario, troubled with diarrhoea while lying and was cross and restless. did not sleep well and mattered came serious. The mother wrote as follows: "My sister had Baby's Own Tablets for her and advised me to try them. a box and after giving the Tablets to the baby a few times he began to improve and was soon well. now a big, healthy baby and never I give him a Tablet he is alright again."

Baby's Own Tablets replace great advantage over oil and nauseous, griping drugs. They sweeten the stomach, quiet nerves and promote healthful action. They are guaranteed to contain opiate and to be absolutely harmless. If your druggist does keep them you can obtain a sized box by mail, post paid, sending 25 cents to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockton, Ont. or Schenectady, N. Y.

The value of pepper was known old. We read that when Rome had been ransomed from the barbarian queen in the year 400 Alaric demanded 3,000 pounds of pepper among the terms and that Hippocrates used medicine, applying it to the skin.

Jezabel, the queen of Abah, according to one of the rabbis, had "hell" in her mouth.

C. B. FOSTER,
D. P. A., C. P. R.
St. John, N. B.

A good story is told of Dr. X., who is the physician in charge of the female wards of one of our best known charitable institutions. One evening about 9 o'clock Mary, a new Irish servant girl, knocked at the door, saying: "Doctor, the head nurse wants you to come down to supper."

The doctor, swelling in his pride of superiority above the nurses, sent the Irish girl away with a curt message. Half an hour later the head nurse came to his room looking very serious.

"Doctor," she said, "No. 8 is very bad indeed. I think you ought to see her at once."

"Why did you not let me know before?" was the reply.

"Why, doctor," said the nurse, "I sent you word by Mary half an hour ago."

"The fool!" said the doctor. "She told me to come down to supper!"

"Why," said the nurse, "I sent you word to come down to eight!"

An inquiry made the whole thing clear. Mary thought it more polite to say "Come down to supper" than to say "Come down to ate."
